Duo Wed Saturday; To Be Feted

Honoring her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester G. Falk (June R. Berdell), who were married Saturday, Mrs. E. E. Richmond, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Carl Nebel, is entertaining at a reception this coming Thursday evening. The reception will be at their home on North 25th street between 8 and 11 o'clock.

The couple were married at a simple service at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of the officiating pastor, the Rev. Phil Hurd, assistant pastor of the Court Street Christian church. Only the immediate families attended the wedding. Mr. Falk is the son of Mrs. Nellie M. Falk.

Mrs. Hurd played the wedding music. The bride wore a pretty champagne lace over taffeta dress, ballerina length, with beige accessories. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible with white orchid.

The bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nebel, attended the couple. Mrs. Nebel wore a cocoa brown lace over taffeta dress ballerina length, with beige accessories and her corsage was of Tallman roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Richmond wore a navy blue sheer with pink accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a sheer green dress with black accessories and corsage of red roses.

Following the service, there was an informal reception at the home of the bride's mother for the group attending the wedding. Mrs. W. E. Ross of Watertown, S. D., aunt of the bride cut the cake. Mr. and Mrs. Ross were here for the wedding.

The couple went to the coast for a few days, the bride wearing a brown suit with beige accessories for traveling. They will be at home at 1210 Icel court, Salem, after April 1.

Garden Club Sets Future Activities

Salem Heights — Nineteen members attended the desert luncheon when the Little Garden Club of Salem Heights met last week at the home of Mrs. A. A. Taylor on Culver Lane. Mrs. Joe Van Cleave was the assisting hostess.

The club decided to enter the camellia show, scheduled for April 4 and 5, at the Stan Baker show room. Plans were completed for the club's luncheon, to be April 9, at the home of Mrs. John Ramage on Croisan Creek Road, at 12:30. On the committee are Mrs. Lyle Bayne, Mrs. John Ramage, Mrs. Kenneth Zwicker, Mrs. Charles Hageman, Mrs. L. L. Bennett, Mrs. Hunt Clark, and Mrs. E. A. Carleton. The Garden Clubs in the south Salem area have been invited to attend.

Miss Howe Wed Here On Sunday

The Court Street Christian church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Mary Adelaide Howe to William W. Covert, Jr. on Sunday afternoon, March 29. Calls lilies and fern decorated the church, the Rev. Glen Vernon and the Rev. W. Harold Lyman officiating at the 3 o'clock ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Adelaide Howe of Camas, Wash., and the bridegroom is the son of William W. Covert of Stayton.

Preceding the service, Miss Gloria Nandie sang, accompanied by Maurice Brennen who also played the wedding music. Miss Janet DeWeese and Dale Ackerman lighted the tapers.

The bride wore a white wedding dress with satin applique on the lace bodice and long sleeves coming to points over the wrists. The skirt was of satin and fell into a court length train. A pleated bonnet of satin held the lace edged veil in place, and the bride carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Mrs. Stan Smith, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and wore a green taffeta dress. Her bouquet was a cascading one of white carnations.

Miss Jane Pinkerton and Miss Marilyn Merz, sorority sisters of the bride, and Miss Wilma Ailer were the bridesmaids and they wore dresses styled like the matron of honor's only they were in a lighter green color. Each carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Ruth Webb was flower girl and also wore a green frock. The bride's brother, Robert Howe, was best man and ushering were Laval Olson and Don Scarborough, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom, Dale Kirach, William Poole and Stan Smith, the bridegroom's brother-in-law.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Howe wore a blue dress and wore a corsage of white roses.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. Maud Van Carmen, aunt of the bride, cut the cake and pouring were Mrs. Vern Davis, the bridegroom's aunt, and Mrs. Nellie Thurber. Serving were Mrs. David Platt, Mrs. Vern Hulett, Mrs. Laval Olson, and the Misses Donna Cheldelin, Lola Brook, Marie Basil, Betty Royer, Ardith Roseberry and Mary McLaughlan.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to the coast, the bride wore a navy blue suit with blue and white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Wed Recently—Mr. and Mrs. George Magarrell (Phyllis Music) were married recently at the First Methodist church in Stayton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Music of Aumsville and Mr. Magarrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Magarrell of Scio. (McEwan studio picture)
