Many at Dinner of Nile Club

An event of Monday evening was the dinner given by Salem club, Daughters of the Nile, honoring Mrs. Estill L. Brunk, the retiring president. Mrs. Brunk addressed the group, giving a summary of projects completed during her year as president, and introduced the officers who served with her. Mrs. Harry L. Miller presented her with a gift from the club.

A special guest was Rollin Lewis, president of the Salem Shrine club, who complimented the group for their work in the order.

Miss Harriett Aller of Willamette university presented whistling solos accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Shields.

Mrs. Lorin Spaulding and Mrs. J. B. Linton were chairmen of the affair. Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer, vice-president, presided and the toastmistress was Mrs. David Wright.

Neighbors Fete Couple

Mr. and Mrs. George Vick, who observed their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday, were honored by a group of Sunset avenue neighbors that evening.

The friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jenny, then went to the Vick home to present the couple with a gift, the entire group then going to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Curry for refreshments.

The coffee table was covered with a gold cloth and its center arrangement included two hearts wrapped in gold, daffodils and yellow candles. Mrs. Verl Mumau and Mrs. Will Sparrow poured.

Attending the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Vick, Mr. and Mrs. Verl Mumau, and son, Claire; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Streeter; Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Hancock, Miss Starr Hancock, Mr. and Mrs. William Davies, Louis and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Manion, Gary, Rosemary and James; Mrs. Lillie Burch, Mr. and Mrs. Will Sparrow, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jenny, Nancy and Marcia; and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Curry.

At Chapter Event

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomson and Paul Irwin were initiated Saturday evening into Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Before the meeting, members and their families enjoyed a no-host dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller were chairmen of the annual event.

An Easter reading was given by Norman Fletcher and Mrs. Delight Skewis presented songs. Highlight of the program was a preview of Easter bonnets created by members and modeled by their husbands, William Merriott winning the prize.

Seating Arrangement at Concert Series Continues

Some 50 Community Concert association workers met Monday evening at the Marion hotel Marine room for the annual workers dinner and to hear plans for the coming season. State Representative Mark O. Hatfield, new president of the group, presided.

Joel Kimball, representative from the Columbia Artists Management, Inc., was a guest and listed the artists available for the 1953-54 season.

Mr. Hatfield announced that in the recent poll, to determine if the membership wished to continue the present seating policy of "first come, first served," or change to a reserved seat system, more than half the membership had voted. Of that half, three-fourths voted to continue the present policy.

Mrs. R. D. Blatchford, secretary, reported the membership week is underway this week with offices in the Portland General Electric company office and that workers may reach her by calling the association number, 45669. The concert group's hours are the same as for the PGE, closing at 8 p.m.

The group expressed appreciation to Dr. Chester A. Downs for his work as president last year. The new board members introduced were Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Mrs. James Walton, Mrs. Peter M. Gunnar, Justice George Roseman and Dr. Paul N. Poling.

The Community Concert association board is meeting Wednesday evening to line up the concert series for next season.
