Miss Lydia E. Gerhart Here Saturday For Address

Miss Lydia E. Gerhart, of Orlando, Florida will speak at the Jason Lee Methodist church, Winter and Jefferson, next Saturday, April 4, at 2 p.m. She has had wide experience in missionary service and also as a field representative of the department of work in the home fields, and is familiar with all phases of the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church.

Miss Gerhart speaks to the Methodist women of the Salem district as a part of her itinerary of the Oregon conference. In the evening of April 4, the Wesleyan Service guilds of Salem will entertain all other guilds of the Salem district at a no-host dinner at 6:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church, Church and State streets. Miss Gerhart will be the guest speaker. She entered Missionary service through the avenue of secretarial work, first at the Deaconess home and settlement, Philadelphia, Pa., and later at the West Side Community house, Cleveland, Ohio. In September of 1940, she became superintendent of the Methodist Deaconess home and West Side Community house, Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Gerhart is now serving the Woman's division of Christian Service as a speaker representing the department of work in the home fields. All women of the Salem district are invited to hear her Saturday.

LIBERTY — Mrs. Ed Jory will entertain the Liberty Women's club at a dessert luncheon on Thursday, April 2, at her home, 425 Hoyt street. Mrs. Louis Kurth will have charge of the program.

Salem General Hospital Group Invites Members

Letters were received by 800 members of Salem General Hospital auxiliary today announcing the annual membership drive which opens Wednesday, April 1, to continue through April 8.

Goal of the membership group is to increase the roll to 1000 members this year, reports Mrs. John H. Johnson, president of the auxiliary.

Mrs. E. M. Page is the sustaining membership chairman. Six co-chairmen are conducting the annual membership campaign, including Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. Leon Perry, Mrs. John Kolb, Mrs. Vernon Perry, Mrs. Morris Crothers, Mrs. Harold Busick.

The membership campaign is one of three money-raising activities of the auxiliary each year, the other two being the Silver tea early in the fall and the rummage sale during the winter.

Membership in the auxiliary is open to all interested women. Purpose of the auxiliary program is to assist the Salem General hospital with its special needs and equipment, the group each year expending hundreds of dollars in help to the hospital.

This year, more than ever, the group is working hard to raise substantial funds to assist in furnishings and equipment for the new wing of the hospital now under construction.
