No Word Received By Frank Landsburg

Portland (AP)—Frank Landsburg of Portland, district director of the interstate commerce commission's bureau of motor carriers, said today he had no official word that he would be appointed to fill a vacancy on the ICC. Radio Commentator Drew Pearson forecast that Landsburg would be appointed. Landsburg said there had been much discussion about the appointment of a westerner to the commission who is familiar with transportation and allied fields. The labor-management trucking industry national defense committee recently urged President Eisenhower to appoint Landsburg as a member of the commission.

Lady Does Well Until Cops Get Her

Dallas, Tex. (AP)—A department store floorwalker saw a 42-year-old woman shoplifter slip two items under her dress yesterday and called police who arrested her.

At the city jail the woman turned over a sack of candy, a raincoat, a boy's shirt, two billfolds, five pairs of ladies hose, three packages of buckshot, two pints of paint, two flower bulbs, a jar of deodorant, a tube of tooth paste, four packages of flower and vegetable seeds and two brassieres.

Boy Drowns in First Swimming Lesson

Longview (AP)—A seven-year-old boy who enrolled in a YMCA class to learn to swim during his spring vacation drowned Monday while taking his first lesson.

The body of Bobbie Beagle was found at the bottom of the pool after 25 other children in the class had completed the lesson.

He was pronounced dead after two hours of futile resuscitation efforts.

YMCA officials said it was the first drowning in the 25 years the pool has been used.

Highway Accident Causes Two Deaths

Drain (AP)—A car left the highway two miles north of here at 11:45 p.m. Monday and two of its three occupants drowned when it plunged into Pass Creek.

Dr. Lucien Inboden, deputy coroner, said Fred L. White, 36, of Dallas, Ore., told him he had been driving but surrendered the wheel about a thousand yards from the scene of the mishap. He said he rolled down a rear window and got out.

Drowned were Jess Powell, about 34, of Loomis, Calif., and

Gen. Kessler To Speak Here

Maj. Gen. Alfred A. Kessler, Jr., commander of the Fourth Air Force since September, 1952, will come to Salem May 14 to speak in observance of Armed Forces week.

Col. John Rodman, commander of the Oregon Military district and coordinator for Armed Forces Week observance in Oregon this week sent that word to members of a committee arranging Salem's observance. Heading the committee is Dean Seward Reese of Willamette university.

The Fourth Air Force commander will be paying his second visit to Salem since he assumed his duties as commander of the Fourth Air Force. His first visit was in early December, 1952, when Kessler visited with Douglas McKay and at the adjutant general's office here.

Gen. Kessler will arrive in Salem by plane the morning of May 14, which incidentally is the 50th anniversary of the first flight of a heavier than air craft.

FRANCE TO CUT IMPORTS

Paris (AP)—France is going to slash her imports from West European nations by about 10 per cent during the next six months because of a heavy unfavorable trade deficit.

Fifth Jungle Drink Bout Victim Dead

Yakima (AP)—The toll from a week-end hobo "jungle" drinking party stood at five dead Tuesday with five others in hospitals under treatment for what doctors diagnosed as wood alcohol poisoning.

Two Mexicans, identified as Ernest Baca, 36, Santa Fe, N. M., and Charles Ocoosa, 38, Van Nuys, Calif., were the latest victims. They died Monday night, more than 24 hours after taking part in what police said was a canned-heat drinking party in a "jungle" south of here.

Other victims were Negro transients Jake Edwards, 55, of Louisiana, and Seydock Fry, about 40, of California, who died Sunday night, and Mrs. Lucy Sam Fowler, 53-year-old Yakima Indian.

Police investigating an address found in a pocket of one of the poison victims found Mrs. Fowler dead in her home near the scene of the party Monday. An autopsy Monday night determined she died of wood alcohol poisoning.

Short story of a long shopping list

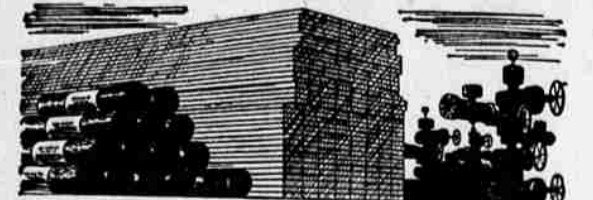

If you were to jot down all the different goods and services Standard Oil Company of California buys, your shopping list would be about 50,000 items long. Over the years, we've been growing as a customer as well as a supplier here in the West. But the most important aspect of our "shopping," we believe, is where we do it. You might think that a large company like Standard would centralize its buying in a few metropolitan areas. Actually, our purchases are made in hundreds of Western communities. The almost infinite variety of Standard's needs—from paper clips to propellers, from produce to professional services—has made the Company an important factor in the economic well-being of Western towns and cities. Last year, once again, Standard was a very good customer for a great many firms—more than 10,000 suppliers, both large and small, to whom

From groceries to drilling pipe, Standard's local purchases mean business to merchants all through the West.

We buy lumber, roofing, plumbing, carpentry, and supplies for our oil fields, refineries, plants, and offices.

We also use the services of doctors, nurses, pharmacists, lawyers, engineers, surveyors, drilling contractors, geophysicists, and others.

we paid more than $125,000,000. We've always bought locally wherever possible and practical. We do it not only because it's good business for Standard, but also because it helps the growth of the West. We know that our long-run prosperity depends on that of the communities we serve.
