

Senator Against Charge For State TB Patients

Based upon the premise that help given an individual in the way of health benefits the entire community, Senator Robert Holmes of Clatsop, went on record Monday night as being opposed to making a charge against patients or their families in connection with treatment at State Tuberculosis Hospital.

The senator was speaking before the annual meeting of the Marion County Tuberculosis and Health association conducted at Knight Memorial Congregational church.

Senator Holmes urged all health associations to conduct a program of education among the state's senators and representatives prior to the 1955 session seeking to do away with charges for treatment at all of the state institutions.

Asked by Otto Skopik, president of the Marion county association as to just where a line could be drawn—"Would you include cancer as a disease for free treatment?" Senator Holmes said he did not know.

The speaker struck out for an intermediate institution for the incarceration of the younger type of law violators. He said that a start on such an institution should be made immediately. "We cannot wait another two years to solve the problems existing at MacLaren or the state penitentiary."

Committee reports were read during the evening by Ann Olson, Mrs. Dean Brooks, W. W. McKinney, Richard Smart, Dr. W. J. Stone and Charles F. Felke. It was shown that sales from Christmas seals totalled $20,415.46 during the last drive.

Dr. Stone reported that 30 new cases of tuberculosis had been brought to light in the county during last year.

Recommended for membership to the association's board of directors were Mrs. Dennis Patch, Mrs. Dean Brooks, G. W. Goforth, Rev. T. M. Gebhardt, Dr. Harold Hutchinson, and Sidney Hoffman. Recommended for re-election: Darold D. Elkins, Rex Hartley, county judge; Mrs. Edwin Sahnaw, Mrs. J. F. Wilkoff, Mrs. James Turnbull, Rev. Louis White, Mrs. Floyd Fox, Mrs. Joe Devers, Jr. and Richard Grabenhorst.

The board will meet April 28 to elect officers.

Richard Smart sang two solos Monday night with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Lewis Mitchell.

TELLS OF SPYING

Mrs. Edith Macia, 68, a gentle white-haired grandmother, tells the House Un-American Activities Committee in Los Angeles that for six years she worked as an undercover agent in the Communist party for the FBI. She said she joined a Los Angeles cell which the FBI "had never been able to get a line on." Mrs. Macia gave the committee a list of 146 names she obtained while working in the cell. (AP Wirephoto)

In his plea for mail for his buddy, who is A 3/C Robert V. Johnson, AF 19409623, 334th Fighter Interceptor group, APO 970, care of postmaster, San Francisco, the Salem airman wrote:

"I'm an airman from Salem and have a buddy in my tent who has received but a few letters in months that I have been here.

"I would like to have someone from Salem get busy and write to him I think it would cheer him up very much as he gets very blue and lonely over here."

"Before going into the service Nichols was a driver for Kennedy's City Cleaners for almost three years. His wife lives here at 445 South Capitol street.

"I know a lot of Salem people," he wrote. "I think they will be more than glad to answer this request for me. It gets very lonesome over here if you don't get any mail from home."

Before ending his letter, which was datelined Kimpo Korea, March 24, Airman Nicholas wrote:

"I get the Capital Journal every day from another airman from Salem, West Smith."
