Ducks, Huskies, Beavers, 'Cats, Viks Set for Relays

A number of stars from the University of Washington will participate in the third annual Willamette Relays at McCulloch Stadium Saturday afternoon starting at 1 o'clock.

The Huskies' top threats include Jack Burney, who ran the 440 in :48 plus as a member of the armed forces in Germany last summer; Denny Meyer, holder of the all-time Husky two-mile mark with a 9:25.5 time; George Widenfeld, a standout in the discus, high jump and hurdles; Bob Hutchinson, sprint ace.

Among entries from the University of Oregon will be Al Martin, a 4:15 miler; Ray Packwood, who has done 13'9" in the pole vault and Doug Clement, former member of the Canadian Olympic team.

Oregon State college also will have some solid threats in person of Ralph Sutton, Coast Conference javelin king; Jim Holmes, one of the Coast Conference's better pole vaulters; Mervin Brock, an outstanding sprinter with a time of 9.6 in the century and John Chambers, who has done 15.1 in the high hurdles.

A total of 109 high schools and 13 colleges have entered the relays classic. The list of individual prep and college athletes is expected to be above 1500.

When Ted Ogdahl's Willamette university cindermen get their first taste of 1953 action in Saturday's UW relays the Bearcat squad will include four men who hold Northwest Conference records.

The quartet are Mike Hovis, Olympia, Wash., who holds the conference 800 mark; Layton Gilson, Salem, discus; Jim Hitchman, Balboa Island, Calif.; shotput, and Stan Noperud, Silverton, javelin.

Other top Bearcat threats are Bill Van Horn, Roseburg, holder of the Willamette record in both the century and 220; Ralph Stephenson, Arling, Calif., a standout in the distance events and Dean Benson, Bend, a former State high school hurdle champion.

The Salem high school track squad will open their track season Saturday by entering the Willamette Relays. The Vikings are coached by Vern Gilmore.

Sweet Home Rolls Over Brownies, 15-2

Sweet Home—Batting around in the third and fourth innings, Sweet Home high school defeated Brownsville, 15 to 2 Tuesday afternoon on a soft, damp field.

Bob Morley, Sweet Home's top pitcher, gave up no hits during the three innings he worked. Against Junction City last Friday he held the opposition to two hits.

A sparkling bit of play came in the fourth when Don Sealey of Brownsville bunted a pop fly about 15 feet in front of the plate. Catcher Ted Owens made a diving catch and then whipped the ball to third while on his stomach to complete a double play.

Bill Alwert, Sweet Home's regular catcher, is out with a broken thumb acquired during an inter-squad session last Thursday.

Tuesday's game was the first of the season for Brownsville.

Brownsville ..... 2 3 0
Sweet Home ..... 15 2 0

Salem-Molalla Game Called Off

Salem high school's Vikings, still unable to swing into baseball action because of bad weather conditions, hope to get in their first game of the season Friday against Lebanon at Olinger field.
Twice the Vikings have had games postponed this season. The latest was yesterday, when Salem was slated to play Molalla at Olinger field. A wet field forced postponement of the contest.
Portland O.R.—Caley Cook, star sprinter, hurdler and broadjumper, has been named captain of the 1953 Lewis & Clark college track squad.
