Maybe Mabben sneaked into Juncion, and Hough Jubal, and stall state of the control of the sneam same nouncing, "Sol Robillarde and Chances are he'd of got caught last night if Rimbaud hadn't run shill off the ridge at Boed M I'd bet a month's pay that Malbon at the work watchin' them other places. It is stands to reason Sam must of ate somewheres."

Booger Bill glared at him. "Rimbaud busted my thumb," he said sullenty, and stuck out his bands got felt hand in evidence. "I had to git if lixed, dight!" I strong the crew's curiosity, Stromberg aid, "It would be worth a hundred to git if lixed, dight!" I should be sorth a hundred of spendin' a whole evenin' at the Shiloh bar lappin up beer. If yould state, and the strong had busted my thumb," he said sullenty, and stuck out his band of spendin' a whole evenin' at the Shiloh bar lappin up beer. If you to could of let its know."

Booger Bill glared at him. "Rimbaud do the real of a sound there were he will be shaded to git it lixed, dight!" and the marked of me shaded to be the shill we had been to some folks Eppeliable. The shill be shill be

It might be done," Red Shatter susgested, "if we go at it right, and have a little luck."

At about the same time Jim Rimbaud completed half of a wide circle that had given him glimpses of two homesteads and the little settlement called Isabelie's Camp. He rode slowly, keeing off the trails and reading their sign of event ravel when he crossed them. There had been a considerable amount of riding through thinking that those patrols had been seeking a fugitive who'd been urnished his attention. Rimbaud crossed a rock-rib-solution to the family automobile in January, batter was a motley-faced brindle cow standing beside a brush-fringed rock out-rop.
