Auxiliary Sets Party for Girls In High School

A punch and cookie party for all 9th and 10th grade girls in schools of Marion and Polk counties is planned for Saturday, April 18, by the Marion-Polk Medical Society auxiliary, the event to be in the auditorium of the state school for the blind at 10 o'clock.

Purpose of the event is to interest girls in the nursing profession. By contacting the 9th and 10th grade girls, it is possible for them to arrange their high school courses especially if they are interested in taking up nursing in their advanced schooling.

Mrs. John Ramage is general chairman for the party. Mrs. Willard Stone is arranging the program. Mrs. Robert F. Anderson is heading the invitations committee, Mrs. James Haworth is chairman for hospitality, Mrs. John Goldsmith, chairman for publicity.

Representatives from the various fields of nursing—public health nursing, office nursing, hospital and private nursing—are being invited to attend and give talks on their fields. Also, several girls now in training will be on hand to tell of their work.

Several members of the auxiliary who are registered nurses will attend the tea wearing their caps and pins.

Miss Hays Is Bride

Donald — Miss Phyllis June Hays, daughter of Mrs. William Hays of Newberg, and Fred Theron LaBonte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. LaBonte, were married at the First Christian church in Newberg on March 27 at 8 p.m. The Rev. J. Frank Cunningham read the double ring service before 300 guests.

White stock and pink bouvardia provided a setting for the ceremony. Mrs. Beryl Hutchins sang and Mrs. C. A. Harsner played the wedding music. Lighting the candles were Bill Dressel and Richard Fugate, nephews of the bride.

The bride wore a wedding dress fashioned with white net and lace and carried a white Bible with white rosebuds. Her fingertip veil was fastened with a tiara of rosebuds. William Hays gave his sister in marriage.

Miss Beverly Fugate, the bride's niece, was maid of honor and wore a waltz length dress of orchid net over satin. Dressed in pink net and satin was Miss Nancy Carlisle, the bridesmaid. Junior attendant was Miss Karen Schmidt of Portland, niece of the bride, who wore a teal blue satin frock. All of the attendants carried nosegays and wore rosebud tiaras.

Ronald LaBonte of St. Paul, cousin of the bridegroom, was the best man and ushering were Albert David, cousin of the bridegroom; John Hays, the bride's brother; Jerry Dressel and Robert Fugate, nephews of the bride; and Rollin Robertson, all of Newberg.

A reception followed the service in the church parlors. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Dave LaBonte of St. Paul, Miss Frances Thornton of Newberg and Mrs. E. W. Smith of Pendleton, sister of the bride. Mrs. Stanley Brunson of Newberg and Mrs. George A. Smith of Portland, both sisters of the bride, poured. Assisting were Miss Arlene Owens, Mrs. Earl David, Mrs. Leonard Dressel and Mrs. John Carlson, all of Newberg.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to the coast, Mrs. LaBonte wore a blue and white suit and red accessories. The bride is a graduate of Newberg high school and the bridegroom was graduated from Woodburn high school. He attended Northwest High School of Commerce and is now employed as a certified public accountant.
