Chicago Robber and Cop Kill Each Other

Chicago (AP) — An off-duty veteran policeman and a youthful robber shot and killed each other in a blazing gun battle in a North Clark Street saloon early Thursday. One customer suffered a wound in his left arm when struck by a ricocheting bullet.

Two companions of the dead robber escaped. About a dozen customers were in the saloon when the shooting started.

The policeman, who was killed by a single bullet in his heart, was William Fuller, 49, who had stopped in Mickey's liquor store and saloon after ending his shift shortly before midnight. He was not in uniform.

The dead gunman, James Boswell, 25, had been shot at least four times. His automatic pistol was found on the floor, emptied.
