

McKay Appoints O&C Advisors

Washington (AP)—Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay today announced appointment of six new members to the O and C Oregon and Calif. advisory board and reappointment of 11 members.

The board, which advises the secretary on administration of 2,500,000 acres of timberlands in western Oregon, is composed of representatives of the lumber industry, forestry agencies, and labor, mining, agricultural, recreation, and other interests.

The lands were part of the original area granted by the government as a subsidy for building the Oregon and California railroad.

In 1916 Congress revested the O and C lands to the government.

The new board members are Arthur H. Bone, publisher and editor Oregon Farmer Union, Salem; State Sen. Ben Day, Gold Hill; Julius C. Viancoeur, or the northwestern council of the AFL Lumber and Sawmill Workers, Portland; O. K. DeWitt, Isaac Walton league, Lyons; George Spaur, Oregon state forester, Salem; and State Rep. Loran Stewart, president, Bohemia Lumber Co., Cottage Grove. Retiring members are Paul

T. Bailey, of the northwestern council of the AFL Lumber and Sawmill Workers, Portland; Bernard Buismann, editor, Oregon Grange Bulletin, Portland; Frank Graham, Hills Creek Lumber Co., Jasper; Dwight Phipps, Oregon deputy state forester, Salem; Albert Powers, Oregon Cattle-men's association, Coos Bay; and Joseph W. Smith president, Northwest Industrial Laundry Co. Portland.

TO INVESTIGATE INVESTIGATORS

Washington (AP)—Rep. Robert L. F. Sikes, D-Fla., has called for creation of a Congressional investigating committee to investigate other Congressional investigating committees. That's about all there is left uninvestigated," Sikes said.

Farms in both the U.S. and Mexico are irrigated with Rio Grande waters.
