

Duo Wed Here Sunday

The Calvary Baptist church of Salem was the scene of a wedding on Sunday, March 29, when Miss Shirley Grover, daughter of Mrs. Elva Grover, and Ernest Raffety, son of Henry Raffety, all of Independence, were united in marriage by the Rev. Omar Barth in a double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with palms and baskets of white stock and carnations and pink gladioluses. Janet Fix and Carol Sealey, nieces of the bride, lighted the candles. They wore yellow net dresses over yellow taffeta and little yellow net hats.

Miss Beverly Funk sang, accompanied by Mrs. James Cobble on the piano. Mrs. Hersel Peyree played the wedding music on the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Ted Grover, of Dayton. She wore a white lace over satin dress with a long train. The fingertip veil was held in place by a cap of white satin and seed pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses and camellias.

The maid of honor, Miss Harriet Guild, wore fuchsia net over taffeta with hat to match. The bridesmaids were Misses Delpha Owens and Rita Lewis of Monmouth, Mrs. Glenn Fix of Salem, and Mrs. Lee Christofferson of Portland. All wore aqua net over taffeta frocks with matching hats, and carried pink nosegays. Sonie Holt, the flower girl, wore yellow net over taffeta and carried a yellow basket of flower petals.

Paul Worthington was best man, Francis Holt, James Cobble, Douglas Blair, and Milford Van Hess were ushers and Bobby Worthington carried the rings on a white lace and satin heart shaped pillow.

The bride's mother wore a two piece rose and gray afternoon dress with navy blue accessories and corsage of white carnations for the wedding.

The reception was in the fireplace room of the church. Mrs. Milford Van Hess cut the wedding cake, Miss Irene Allen presided at the guest book and Miss Dolores Hougham had charge of the gift table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Ray Howard, Mrs. T. P. Sharp, Mrs. Flossie Johnson, Mrs. Alma Sloper, Mrs. Jessie Moore, Mrs. Grace Swope, Mrs. Elmer Busby.

The couple will reside at 80 Monmouth street, Independence.

Woodburn — Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Thompson of Woodburn were married March 20 at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Thompson is the former Lois Ann Hansen of Woodburn. After their wedding trip to North Dakota they will live in Woodburn. (Alyce studio, Woodburn.)

Miss Willard and Mr. Bothwell Wed

Albany — In a candlelight ceremony on March 17, Miss Donna Marie Willard of Cottage Grove was wed to Louis Henry Bothwell, Jr. of Eugene. Dr. Wesley Goodson Nicholson, pastor, officiated at the double ring service at the First Congregational church in Eugene. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilson Willard of Cottonwood, Ariz. Mrs. Peter Dolan and Louis Henry Bothwell, Sr. of North Bend are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a dress of Chantilly lace with a full length train. The fingertip veil of nylon illusion was held in place by a half crown of orange blossoms and the bride carried a bouquet of white camellias. Mr. Willard gave his daughter in marriage.

Serving as her sister's matron of honor was Mrs. Lawrence Gray of Burbank, Calif. She wore a floor length dress of Nile green nylon net over satin. Her bouquet was pink and white camellias. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald King of Albany and Miss Jenee Fisher of Seattle, Wash. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor.

Serving as best man was Norman Brenden of Silverton. Ushers were Richard Flomer of Eugene and Don Nelson of Eugene.

Soloist was Miss Ann Chapman of Cottage Grove and she was accompanied by Miss Ruth Owenby at the organ.

A reception in the Wheeler room of the church followed the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake and was decorated with pink camellias and white candles. Cutting the cake were Mrs. A. P. Howells of Albany and Mrs. Clyde Williamson, aunt of the bride, also of Albany.

Cohen-Sherman

Willamina — At an afternoon ceremony on Sunday, March 22, Miss Helen Sherman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Sherman of Portland, was wed to Aaron Cohen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cohen of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Canada. The ceremony was performed in the temple Ahavai Shalom in Portland, Rabbi James I. Gordon officiating.

Mrs. Louis Gilbert, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor.

Mr. Cohen is a ceramic engineer at the Willamina brick plant. They will make their home in Willamina following a wedding trip to San Francisco and Carmel Calif.

Pouring were Mrs. Peter Ployhart and Mrs. Everett Willard, Albany, both aunts of the bride. The guest book was passed by Miss Lella Dehm of Albany. In charge of the gifts was Mrs. Merl Egan of Tangent. Miss Darlene Patterson of Cottage Grove passed the bridegroom's cake. Assisting were Miss Lorna Davis and Miss Nancy Goodman of Portland and Miss Edna Woods of West Linn. Background music was provided by Mrs. Glen Mick of Eugene.

For the wedding trip to the Oregon beaches Mrs. Bothwell chose a gray wool dress with black accessories and white gloves. She wore a white orchid corsage.

They will make their home at 1884 Garden avenue in Eugene where Mr. Bothwell is employed as an accountant. Mrs. Bothwell is teaching at the Mountain View school in Cottage Grove.

NOT A CANDIDATE

Washington (AP)—Ralph Cake, advisor to President Eisenhower in the recent campaign, reiterated Thursday that he is not a candidate for the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee.

He conferred with presidential aides, but said later, "I have not been offered the chairmanship, and I won't be."

About half the people of Cuba are farm workers.

Museum Plans For Program

Kansas City (AP)—The Eisenhower Foundation, set up originally to build a museum at Abilene, Kan., the President's boyhood home, plans to launch an Americanism program in elementary and high schools.

Gov. Edward F. Arn of Kansas, chairman of the foundation's finance committee, disclosed the plan at a trustees' meeting here last night.

"Although the program is not yet outlined," Arn said, "its purpose would be to get down and tell what Americanism really means."

Arn said the foundation already has spent $150,000 on the Abilene museum building which should be finished within the next two months, but needs $90,000 to complete it.

Trustees agreed that before launching the Americanism program, President Eisenhower would be asked for his opinion on the selection of educators and other nationally prominent persons to administer it.

It is estimated that the nylon in a $1.50 pair of nylon stockings is worth about 10 cents.

Marsters and Mrs. Arthur Quirin

Afternoon speakers were Mrs. J. Edgar Purdy of Salem, retiring western jurisdiction treasurer, and Mrs. E. M. Tilton of Springfield. Mrs. Tilton is Oregon conference president and told of the WSCS activities in the United States and abroad. Mrs. Purdy and Mrs. C. W. Stacey of Salem were presented life membership pins in recognition of their service to the society. Mrs. Stacey is the retiring secretary of promotion for the western jurisdiction. Especially honored was Mrs. Barton of West Salem.

Installation of district officers was conducted by Dr. George G. Roseberry, superintendent of the Salem district. Mrs. Oldham was re-elected president, and other officers are Mrs. Melvin Gilson, treasurer; Mrs. Fremont Faul, secretary of spiritual life; Mrs. Ernest Jacobson, secretary of missionary education and service.

Mrs. A. L. Coote, president of the WSCS in Dallas, expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of committee members for the conference.

Officers Elected

Mt. Angel — The Junior American Legion auxiliary met this week at the country home of Mrs. Harold Bourbonnais for election of officers.

Elected to serve for the coming year are: Junior chairman, Mary Lou Bockelman; sergeant-at-arms, Barbara Hoffer; chaplain, Joan Smith; secretary-treasurer, Barbara Bockelman; historian, Diane Bourbonnais.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Bourbonnais, assisted by Mrs. R. T. Bisenius, senior chairman of the junior unit.

Boots & Spurs

By CHARLEN WOODS

Fun night was put on by the Karr family, Friday. The prizes were won by Mrs. Willis Clark and Leddy McKinney. Rodney Hoffstetter announced for such games as 3 legged sack race, won by Laura Karr and George Stender, the rope and barrel race, won by Earl Murray and Roy Garlic, and the scurry race, won by Charlen Woods.

A good crowd turned out for the drill Monday night. Ervin Ward announced and Miss Bonnie Jenkens served home made cakes and cookies.

There was no posse drill Friday night due to the Marion hotel. There were about 70 members attending including Governor Paul L. Patterson.

The no-host dinner served at the club Wednesday night was a big success. From the food that was there we found out that the women are good cooks as well as riders. Forty-five members attended and afterwards Art Martin showed moving pictures in the arena.

Mrs. Lloyd Seamster observed the birthday Wednesday and after the dinner she was presented with a large sheet cake decorated with pansies, roses

Garden Club at Dallas Entertained

Dallas — "Flower pictures in your garden" was the theme of the Dallas Garden club meeting on Thursday. Mrs. John Meeker, Mrs. Allie Hennagin and Mrs. Anna Olsen were hostesses. A panel discussion was conducted by Mrs. C. O. Sloper, Mrs. Harrison Brandt of Independence, and Mrs. Meeker, with Mrs. Hennagin acting as moderator. Mrs. Sloper, a representative of the State Federation of Garden clubs, was the speaker. Mrs. Meeker showed colored slides of local gardens and members exchanged plants.

Miss Merlia LeFors and Miss Kaye McWhirter, Camp Fire girls, were special guests at the meeting and they led a conservation pledge. Other guests were from Willamina, including the garden club president, Mrs. Earl Richardson.

The spring flower show will be at Riverside, near Corvallis, April 11-12.
