

Sewer Service Charges Make Council Argument For Jim Thorpe

A request from G. L. Stein to the city council Monday night for a refund of sewer service charges dating back to December, 1948, caused an argument that wasn't settled.

The reason for the request was the usual one that sewer service for which he has been paying the regular 65 cents a month isn't available.

The city engineer recommended that the refund be only for the last six months, and explained that City Manager J. L. Franzen and Water Manager John L. Geren had agreed with him on that.

"Why for only six months?" Mayor Al Loucks and others asked. "If a property owner has been paying the charge and not getting the service for several years, why not refund all of the money he has paid in?"

"Because," the engineer answered, "properties change hands frequently. So to whom would you refund it?"

Davis reminded the council that a few weeks ago it authorized a survey to find out how many properties in the city are without available sewer service and should not be asked to pay the sewer service charge. Before that, the city officers had no way of knowing who was paying for service not given until they protested to the city council. It seems there were many who went ahead and paid regardless.

The survey is now about complete, and since a lot of the property has changed hands one or more times it seemed necessary that a basis for refunds be fixed. That accounts for the six months.

"This man is going to get it all back as far as I'm concerned," said Alderman Robert F. White.

"We're going to argue this out after the council meeting," added the mayor.

West Salem Club

The West Salem Home Extension club will meet Tuesday, April 14, at the home of Mrs. Herman Boese, 1616 Bonnie Way Drive. The demonstration will be Ready Mixes, with Mrs. Boese and Mrs. W. A. McCormack as leaders. The meeting will start at 10:30 a.m. with a no-host dinner at noon.

Shawnee, Okla. (AP)—Indian Jim Thorpe, acclaimed by the world as the greatest athlete in history, was buried Monday with all the honors the modern land of the red man could bestow on one of its most beloved sons.

With the reading of requiem high mass, the body was laid to rest in a mausoleum in the shadow of an athletic stadium which bears the great Olympic star's name.

He will be immortalized by a bronze and marble statue, 21 feet high, showing Thorpe in the role which first brought him fame—as a football player for the Carlisle, Pa., Indian school.

White and Red men alike, numbering in the thousands, mourned their old friend and idol who was born here 64 years ago when this state was still Indian Territory.

In the funeral procession were six of Thorpe's children and many other relatives from the Thunderbird Clan of the Sac and Fox tribe, which Sunday night held its own ancient secret rites of prayer and feasting.
