Miss Smith, Mr. Mootry Wed Sunday

Wed Sunday afternoon in the First Presbyterian church were Miss Claudette Smith and Keith Mootry. The bride is the daughter of E. L. Smith of Salem and Mrs. William Woelke of Glendale Calif., and Mr. Mootry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mootry of Salem.

The service was at 4 o'clock the Rev. Ernest Preston Goulder officiating. White, pink and yellow snapdragons and candles decorated the church front for the service.

For the music, Josephine Albert Spaulding of Portland, formerly of Salem, sang and Mrs. Goulder played the organ.

The bride wore a lace over satin wedding dress, made with long sleeves and train. The elbow-length veil was arranged from a nylon tulle headpiece trimmed with pearls and arranged with pearlized orange blossoms at the side.

For her flowers, the bride carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Miss Jean Spaulding of Portland, formerly of Salem, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length frock of pink nylon tulle with fitted bodice and full skirt, a stole of the tulle caught to the bodice. Her flowers were white stock and blue irises, tied with blue. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Rauk, Carol Thompson and Sharon Beard. The three wore blue frocks similar to that of the honor attendant's and all four attendants carried bouquets of white carnations and pink snapdragons, tied with pink bows.

Carol Talley and Corinne Mootry were the flower girls, both wearing yellow frocks with matching bows in their hair.

Richard Smith was ring bearer.

Ronald Helgeson was best man. Ushering were Ronald Nelson, Richard Smith, Mac Webb and Rex Layton.

The reception following was in the church also. Assisting were Mrs. Evert Givens, Mrs. Hubert Seamster, Mrs. Forrest Seamster, Miss Joan Seamster, Mrs. Kessley Talley. The bride's table was set with a white satin cloth and yellow ribbons. The cake was encircled with pink roses and ferns and the top ornament was a heartshaped one with a miniature bridal couple.

For going away the bride wore a dusty rose suit with navy blue accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mr. Mootry is in the navy, stationed at San Diego, and will return there next week.
