Army Cuts June Draft Call to 32,000 Men

Washington (AP)—The Army is cutting down its draft requirements for June — 32,000 men compared with the 53,000 quota for each of the preceding four months.

The lower quota, set Wednesday, was anticipated. The Defense Department had said the higher draft calls in the early part of this year were occasioned by the release of large numbers of men called in during the first months of the Korean conflict. Men are expected to flow more evenly into the services hereafter, unless the international situation changes.

Roosevelt Lays Spread Of Fear to McCarthy

Your Poor Dentist, He's Really to Be Pitied

San Francisco (AP)—Your dentist is more to be pitied than censured—he's all broken up because everybody hates him and he's unconsciously seeking a release for his tension.

That's what San Francisco psychiatrists told the California State Dental Association Wednesday.

Knowing that you dislike him before he even gets his forceps on you, the dentist works up so much tension that he may, without realizing it, actually become sadistic, said Dr. Douglas G. Campbell.

Dr. Loren R. Borland, a dentist trained as a psychiatrist, said part of the trouble is due to the unnatural relationship between dentist and patient. The mouth, he said, is made for eating, talking and making love, not as an exploration grounds for a man's fingers.

The patient, naturally, resents being forced to half-swallow a human hand. Nor is the dentist happy about placing his finger in a position where they might be bitten off.

It finally reaches the point where somebody is likely to get hurt. "This is when the dentist should take a break and say, 'now spit.'"

It might be a good idea to add, "and swear a little too," said Borland.

"And it wouldn't hurt for the dentist to do a little swearing himself."

The dentist might even declare "this hurts me worse than it does you," and it probably would be the truth, the psychiatrists agreed.

"It bothers anybody to feel that he's unpopular," said Dr. Alexander Simon, "and the dentist is disliked all day long, by one patient after another."

But don't resort to the bottle or sleeping pills to relieve your tension, Campbell advised the dentist.

Market Bought More Responsibility in Dayton Deal

Dayton (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. John Lorenzen have purchased Fulham's Market and property, from Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Fulham and possession was given Monday, April 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzen come to Dayton's business circle following varied business experiences.

Many years ago he had an egg and poultry business in McMinnville.

In 1928 they moved to Amity and had a like business there, but they added feed and seeds to that.

They later built a locker plant and operated a grocery business there for sometime. They also owned and operated a theatre there.

In October 1947 they began operating the Grand Island store, which they sold after three years. For the past two years they have been living on their farm on the Neck road.

The new business will be known as Lorenzen's Market. Mrs. Dolores Asher, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzen, will assist in the Market. Mrs. Lloyd Ewing who has been with the Fulham's Market for some time, will continue her services.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulham began their business venture in Dayton 20 years ago, in 1933 and have operated the store for 13 years.

In the beginning Fred Bunn was a co-partner and they operated only as a meat market. They added groceries later and at the end of five years Mr. Bunn withdrew from the market and moved away.

The Fulhams continued on and have enlarged the store twice. In June 1946 the Fulham's left the market and Lorenzen and Kenneth Hunter operated the store until May of 1951.

The past two years Mr. and Mrs. Fulham have continued with the store operations. For the present, they plan to take a rest and look after other business interests, but will stay in Dayton.

More Responsibility Placed on Relatives

A tougher relative responsibility law, under which parents and children are required to contribute to support of welfare cases if they can afford it, became effective Monday.

The bill, signed by Gov. Paul L. Patterson, gives the Public Welfare commission the right to get information from the Tax Commission as to the income of relatives of welfare cases and gives the commission power to force payment of support.

It also increases the contributions required of the relatives. The law was passed in 1949, but only about one out of 100 welfare cases gets support from relatives.

The reduction is available where all under age 25 drivers in the household of the insured have successfully completed high school driver education courses. The amount of the discount depends upon the amount of instruction the young driver has received and will be allowed upon presentation of a certificate showing the minimum number of hours of classroom instruction and "behind the wheel" practice driving, Anderson said.
