

Detroit

Detroit — Seventeen eighth grade students will receive diplomas the latter part of May, according to an announcement made Friday by Mrs. John Ray, eighth grade instructor at the Detroit elementary school. Mothers of the students assembled to discuss plans for the graduation, approving the vote of the class to have the annual dinner for graduates and their parents, followed by the graduation program and informal dance.

The eighth grade class includes the following students: Danny Bowers, Rosalia Bowers, Danny Gescher, Bruce Gordon, Judy Haseman, Michael Howland, Bradford Humphrey, Roger Fleming, Phyllis Ketchum, Donald Jackson, Michael Moore, Melodie Palmer, Leonard Snyder, James Stahlman, Lanny Vickers, John Wallace and Donald Watkins.

Following the discussion the students' mothers were served punch and cupcakes by the eighth grade girls at card tables decorated with yellow forsythia and candles. Mrs.

Doris Haseman, room mother, assisted with the refreshments.

Mrs. Irving Steers entertained recently with a party celebrating the first birthday of her little daughter Nancy.

Seated with Nancy at the table were Douglas Reed, Penny Lou and Terry Dean, Frankie Moore, Michael, Susanne, Mary Lou, Bobby, Patrick and Peggy Moore.

A decorated cake centered the table and each guest had a cupcake with one lighted candle. Balloons and candy baskets completed the table decorations.

Sharing refreshments with the baby's mother were Mrs. Howard Dean, Mrs. Starr Reed and Mrs. Spencer Moore.

Gates

Gates — Mrs. Walter Brislin was hostess at her home Saturday afternoon to members of the Gates Birthday club and guests. Following a luncheon served at 1 o'clock, euchre was in play at three tables.

High score was held by Mrs. Gerald Heath, second by Mrs. Gwen Schaefer, consolation was given Mrs. Mary Champ, of Salem, and Mrs. Oscar Osterhout was presented the guest prize.

Others attending were Mrs. Martha Bowes, Mrs. Edmund Davis, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Robert Levon. Special guests were Mrs. Mable Knutson, Mrs. Phillip Hess, Miss Elizabeth Thompson and Mrs. George Arthurs.

Mrs. T. V. Graunde left the last of the week for Seattle where she will visit for a week at the home of her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Volkel returned home the first of the week from a 10-day vacation trip through California and Nevada.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pennick last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cochran and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ammon and children, all from Jefferson; and Mrs. Pennick's mother, Mrs. Ray Colgan of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Morrison left this week for a combined vacation and business trip to northern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Osborne have returned to Gates and are located at La Vista court. Osborne is an employe of the Bonneville Power Co., and will be employed here for the summer.

Edmund Davis, Jr., who has been at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis, since his return from Japan, where he served with the armed forces, left Thursday for Seattle. He will visit his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Overlock and two children and friends.

Cecil Haun, who is employed at Redding, Calif., was home for several days the last of the week with his family. He, accompanied by his son, Mervin and Jerry Lawson, left Sunday morning for Redding. The two boys drove back Monday. Both boys are students of the Gates high school.

Mrs. Robert Levon is hospitalized in Salem at the Memorial hospital following major surgery Monday morning. She will be there for at least five days.

Mrs. Burrel Cole visited the past week in Klamath, Calif., at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Cole and three children.

A program of sacred music was presented Sunday afternoon at the Gates Community Church of Christ by a newly organized Vesper Band, under the direction of Mrs. Priscilla Willitsey of Salem.

The band, a group of guitar and accordion students of Mrs. Willitsey, were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Phyllis Halloway.

Three special numbers were dedicated by George and Terry Meisinger, sons of Mrs. Willitsey, to their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Hennes, of Gates, who were in the audience.

Members of the band were Mrs. Harriet Spies, Mrs. Muriel Warner, Mrs. Aleen Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Lacy, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Adams, Mrs. Jane Plonski, Miss Irma Sanford and Miss Aileen Haner.

Scio

Scio — Jim Lamb has been appointed on the Union High school board to fill the unexpired term of Ralph Goller, who has moved to New Mexico.

Evangelistic services will begin Tuesday night, conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Watkins and family of Long Beach, Calif.

Next Sunday, Rev. Elvin Fast will preach his last sermon here at the Baptist church. He has resigned the pastorate here, and will open a new conservative Baptist church in West Salem April 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pierce and children left Monday for their new home in Ord, Neb., where Mr. Pierce will be in business with his father-in-law, John Haskell.

The Pierces have lived here for nearly five years and have been active in many community affairs.

They have leased their farm to G. L. Thurston.

The following have been elected on the pulpit committee to secure a new pastor for the local Baptist church: Howard Shelton, Roy Thurston, Harold Pynch, John Hatfield and Mrs. Laddy Elliott.

The Cedrette club will hold a rummage and cooked food sale Saturday, April 25, in the Bartu building.

Mrs. Robert Peshall of Hood River and daughter, Mrs. N. Gunderian of Prosser, Wash., recently visited relatives here.

A bridal shower was given Friday for Mrs. Ralph Goller, Jr., at the Goller home.

Hostesses were Joyce Lonbeck and Pearl Lonbeck.

Mrs. Earl Hoover has been caring for her sick parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Newt Crabtree in Halsey.

Mrs. Crabtree is now in the Lebanon hospital and Mrs.

Hoover has returned to her home here.
