East Salem

East Salem—A number of East Salem women are visiting their neighbors over coffee cups once a week. Several who live on Fisher Rd. and the short streets off this street, and on Sunnyview Ave. have been meeting on Tuesday morning for several weeks for these visits.

Tuesday morning hostess was Mrs. Jerry Horn. Attending for the first week were Mrs. William Lock, with her house Bodine of Vancouver, Wash. Other neighbors were Mrs. J. M. McCrea, Mrs. Don Maus, Mrs. Harvey Page, Mrs. Virgil Miller, Mrs. Albert Suran, Mrs. Lester Orton, Mrs. Fred Smalley and Mrs. Horn.

The April business meeting of the Swegle Community Builders was held Monday night at the home of Mrs. Melvin La Due on Hollywood Dr. Attending were Mrs. Conrad Hofstedt, Mrs. Earl Rowland, Mrs. Leonard Odum, Mrs. Richard Highberger, Mrs. George Shell, Mrs. Arthur Masters, Mrs. Verle Klampe, the hostess and a new member, Mrs. Daryel Donaldson.

The social meeting will be April 27 with Mrs. Odem. The welfare chairman of this group reported food and clothing given a family whose home was burned.

Dr. Robert Anderson, publicity chairman for the school carnival held at Hoover school last Friday night reported over $600 received, but the general chairman, George Goforth, has some expense from this. Committee chairmen were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mills, Mrs. J. W. Dransfeldt, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dumler, James Zigler, Mrs. Pete McCafferty, Mrs. O. P. Wagner, Mrs. William Wells, Mrs. G. Jackson and Ed Randall.

The first April broadcast at Swegle school this week had as the announcer, Johnny Jones. Reporters were Bonny Welty, Daryel Zwemke, Deanna Korb, Gary Allison, Margaret Gilman, Jerry Gotchall and general school announcement by Daryel Donaldson.

The third grade now has 29 pupils. Jean Blankeroort came from Haines and Beverly Jus-tus was transferred from Highland school.

New officers for this grade are president, Sharon Lock; vice president, Margie Masters; secretary, Gary Willis; and treasurer, John Speers.

There are four new pupils in the fourth grade, Carol Blankeroort, Victor Allen, Harold Ruby and Kay Riby.

The officers are: president, Newton Alderman; vice president, Lonny Doctor and secretary, Nancy Stark.

Phillip Jones of this grade has been out of school three weeks because of illness.

Swegle school now has three pupils out of school with rheumatic fever. They are Gary Hoffman, who is the latest victim, Carolyn Martin and Dale Beach.

Texture Plays Lead Role in Your Carpet

Texture and color go hand-in-hand. In fact, different textures can make the same color appear darker or lighter, duller or brighter. And your carpet's texture may give an air of formality or informality to your room.

Most carpet is woven in loops called pile. When these loops are left intact, the carpet has "uncut pile." But when these loops are clipped, the carpet has "cut pile." All the different weaves except Axminster can easily be made cut or uncut pile. Quality depends on the materials and the workmanship, not on whether or not the pile is cut.

Besides carpets with cut pile and carpets with uncut pile, you'll find carpets with different mixtures. Sometimes one carpet has both cut and uncut pile, sometimes a carpet mixes cut or uncut piles of various heights.

Generally speaking, the nubby look of uncut pile is best for informal rooms. And sculptured rugs or rugs with a cut pile have a luxurious look that's right for formal rooms. But textures vary so widely, you can't make any hard and fast rules. The texture that you like best and that suits your room best is the right one.

15 Names Added to Jury List at Albany

Albany—Addition of 15 names to the current jury list was announced Thursday by County Clerk R. M. Russell in anticipation of the trial of John Bob Sturgill on a first degree murder charge, which is scheduled to start in circuit court here Tuesday at 9:30 a.m.

Sturgill is charged with the slaying of Lot Hughes Gilmore in a hobo jungle camp last February. The accused man was returned to Oregon from California and has been in the county jail the past several weeks.

Size Vital in Living Rooms

The new trend in home architecture is to sacrifice space in kitchens, baths and bedrooms in order to have a large living room or living-dining room. This means that many houses in the "small home" class, may have living rooms from 20 to 25 feet long, or longer, and proportionately wide.

The problem in decorating a large room, particularly if it is furnished so that one end serves as a dining room, is to make it one decorative unit. The one best solution is to tie the room together with the floor covering.

Many Karastans are woven in larger sizes to meet this demand. So, regardless of how large your customer's room is, she can almost always find a Karastan that fits it and allows the correct amount of floor space as a border.

For "problem" rooms certain Karastan rugs can also be made in custom sizes on special orders through a unique method of hand weaving. It is a simple matter. Merely select the standard sizes that can be cut and hand-woven to meet her required size.

Many new homes of ranch-house design have a large "L-shaped" living area instead of living room and dining room. In such a layout two matching rugs are very often more attractive and practical than either one large rug or carpeting.

Carpet Bazaar On in Furnishings Stores

New 1953 carpet styles from the mills of the nation's leading carpet manufacturers will be unveiled to the public during the Carpet Fashion Bazaar, April 13 to 23 in furniture and home furnishings stores across the country. A special showing for the public of the latest floor covering fashions will be held during the two week period at H. L. Stiff Furniture company.

Revolutionary advances in carpet making techniques and the development of new and improved raw materials have made possible a vast array of luxurious, long-wearing textures and patterns in popular and medium price ranges. Many of the carved and sculptured effects long associated with the most expensive carpet are now within reach of every budget. Modern textures, casual provincial designs and new interpretations of traditional floral patterns have been styled for every decorating taste.

The new floor coverings combine style and beauty with such practical advantages as greater quiet in the home, warmth, less upkeep of floors, making small rooms appear larger and a long term investment in home improvement, according to William Kaufman.

Lebanon Engineer Stricken on Street

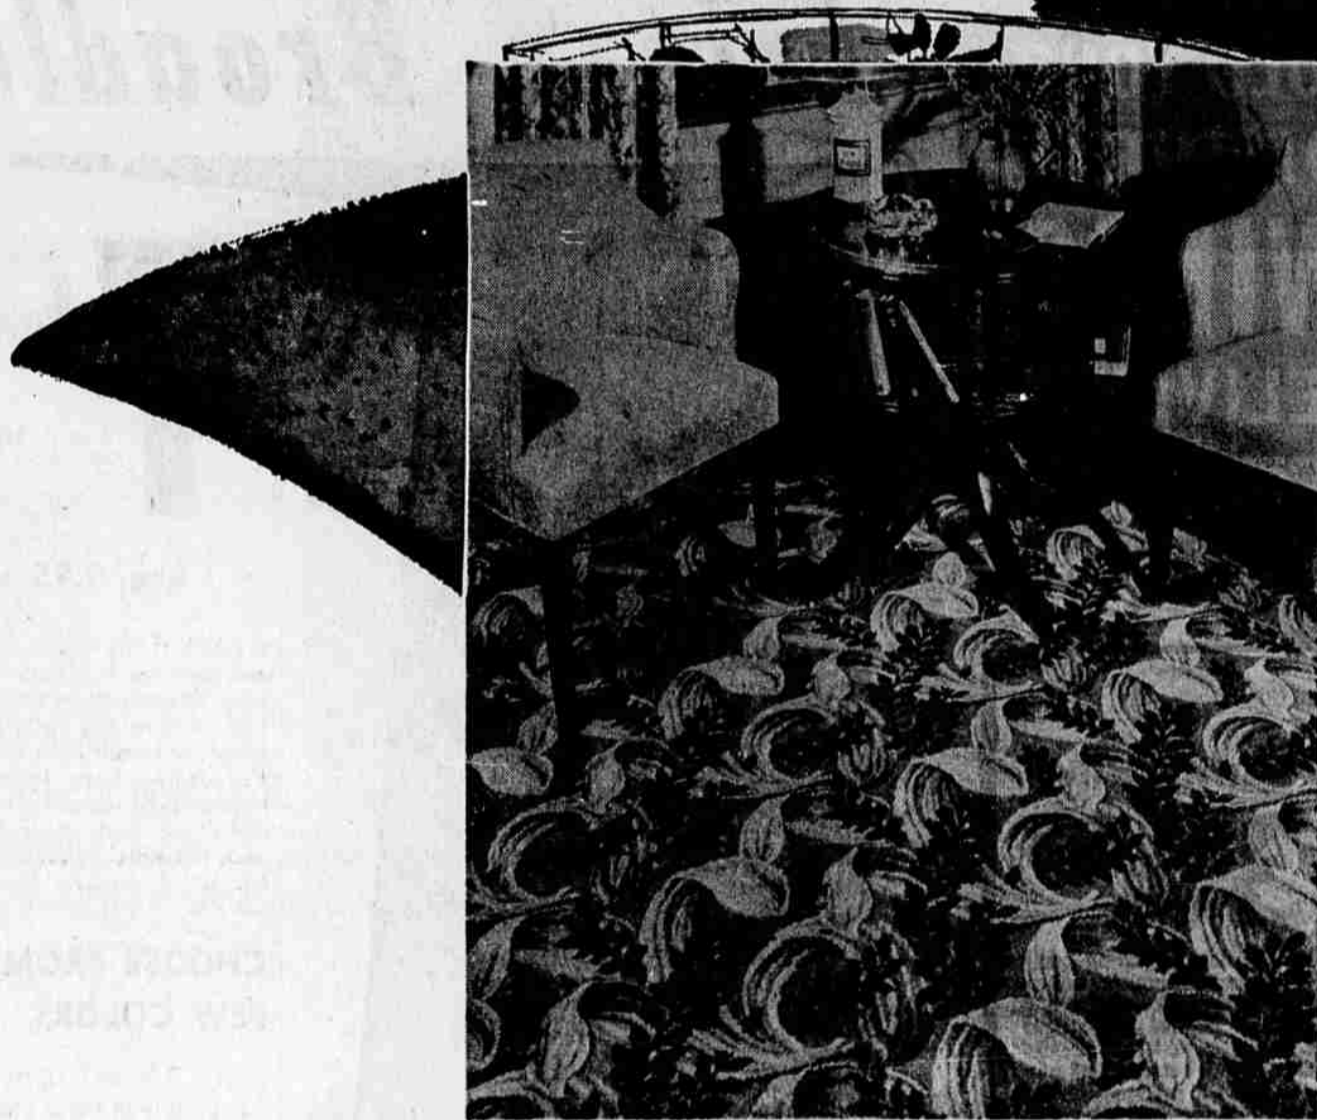

Lebanon—Oscar Hjalmer 55-year-old yarder engineer for the Gilbert-Eaton Logging company, collapsed early Wednesday morning while standing at a Main street intersection waiting for transportation to work. Taken to the community hospital, he died Wednesday evening.

Kangas was born at Iahpenning, Mich., August 9, 1897, and had lived in Oregon for the past 20 years, coming from Portland to Lebanon in 1941. He lived alone at 128 East Maple street, Lebanon.

Surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Ellen Johnson and Mrs. Jean Adee, both of Lyons, and Vera Holbrook, Portland. Funeral services will be held from the Huston chapel Saturday at 11 a.m.
