Prior to lunching one moon and were hoping for word last week with Mrs. Harry while here of the expected the Rev. Paul Kunzman, Engate Supreme Court Justice Harold H. Burten, I had the privided H. Burten, I had the p Cheetham, I watched the Court lunch with the Secretary on any white accessories and a assemble and then we had a quick tour of the Justices' conform a business engagement in ference room and dining room.

The only one missing on the bench was Associate Justice William O. Douglas, from our Northwest who has had a tooth and Havana. The late Dr. Toses.

William O. Douglas, from our Northwest, who has had a tooth infection.

There is a strict admonition for silence in the court room but on this particular morning, eyes were busy, if not tongues, as the word had gone round the building that Christine Jorgenson was in the court room. We spotted her, too, and then while we were lunching, she came into the dining room with her press agent. One had not expected a side show at the Sultonal Committee meeting.

The late Dr. Chance was a member of the State Board of Health. She is driving to Oregon with her brother, Dr. Collie Cathey, of Portland, and his wife, who are with their son in Frederick, Maryland, this week.
