

Activities of New Week Listed . . . .

Last meeting of the year for Town and Gown club is planned for next Thursday afternoon, April 23. During the business session, nominations will be reported and officers elected.

The program will be at 2 p.m. in the Music hall. Prof. Stanley Butler, pianist of Willamette university faculty, will present a lecture recital on French keyboard music of the 18th and 20th centuries, works of Couperin, the Rameau, Debussy and Ravel to be played.

The tea will follow in Lausanne hall, the girls of the hall to be hostesses. Mrs. Melvin H. Geist will introduce to the line. In the receiving line will be Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, retiring president of the club; Mrs. Thomas Watson, Mrs. Jackie Meadows, president of Lausanne hall, and Mrs. Karl Kugel, tea chairman for the day. Assisting Mrs. Kugel on the tea committee are Mrs. Hall Lusk, Mrs. B. F. Williams and Mrs. Harry V. Collins.

Mrs. Vern Shay and Mrs. George Mocking are to pour.

At their meeting Thursday evening, the Y Wives chose new officers to direct club activities beginning next fall. Mrs. H. R. Hutchinson is the new president; Mrs. Marvin Brown, vice-president and program director; Mrs. Francis Albada, secretary-treasurer.

Talks on aspects of the YWCA program in which the Y Wives can be of service were given by Mrs. Harold O. Schneider, president of the YWCA; Miss Gertrude Acheson, executive director; Mrs. George Gregor, member of the board of directors; and Miss Elizabeth Beat, young adult program director.

The Y Wives, a service organization, will welcome any new members, interested women to contact Mrs. Wolf Von Otterstadt.

Travel group of the American Association of University Women is to meet on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John A. Dyke, Miss Joanna Hirtzel to be speaker on life in Mexico.

Mrs. E. F. Carleton, Miss Brenda Glass, Miss Maxine Heringer, Mrs. A. W. Ullman and Mrs. Marion Wooden will compete for speech honors at Salem Toastmistress club Thursday evening. General evaluator of the talks will be Mrs. George Beane and time-keeper is Miss Alberta Shoemaker.

Hostess will be Miss Constance Weinman and Miss Ruth Jaynes will be in charge of table topics.

Past president for Hal Hibbard auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, will meet next Friday for dessert at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Fred Thompson, 1575 South Commercial.

Several members of the group were in Portland today to attend meetings honoring Mrs. James W. Nugent of Montana, national president of the auxiliary. The local auxiliary met this week and Mrs. Peter Thome of Yakima was a guest.

Two Willamette university house-mothers, Mrs. Ella C. Watson of Lausanne hall and Miss Etta White from Chi Omega sorority, will be speakers at the Y-Teen, Tri-Y Mothers club on Thursday. They will tell about adjustments which girls must make when they enter college and other sidelights of university life.

Following a report by Mrs. Arnold Coffel on recommendations of new officers, elections will take place. The meeting is to be at 12:30 p.m. at the YWCA.

East Salem Lions club auxiliary is meeting with the Lions for a no-host dinner on Wednesday evening, April 22, in Mayflower hall, at 6 o'clock.

For the program, Mrs. Verne Reiersen is to show slides and tell of her trip to Burma.

On the hostess committee are Mrs. Don Barriek, Mrs. Robert Dyer, Mrs. Alfred Domogalla and Mrs. Joseph Tompkins.

Mothers club of Bethel No. 35 entertained the Mothers club of Bethel No. 43 of the local Job's Daughters, at a luncheon on Thursday. Speakers were Mrs. Fred Snider, president of the Bethel No. 43 group, and Mrs. Edward Perrin, guardian council member of Bethel UD, who told of plans their groups have made for the year.

For the program, Mrs. Elmer Amundson gave a special reading. The group will invite the guardian council members of Bethel No. 35 as guests for the May meeting.

A joint institute for Marion county and Salem central Women's Christian Temperance Union will take place in the chapel at Salem Memorial hospital, Tuesday, beginning at 10 a.m. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Milton E. Coe and there will be group singing directed by Mrs. E. A. Tibbetts, state director for music. Reports will be given by Mrs. H. R. Mitchell, state convention; Mrs. C. W. Stacey, religious education; and Mrs. Jennie D. Nunn, literature.

A noontide prayer by Mrs. Nacia Buck will be followed by a no-host luncheon, members to bring a special dish and their own table service.

At 1:15 p.m., Mrs. William Hargis, president of the Multnomah county group will report on institute work, after which Mrs. Ruth Tooze, president of the Oregon WCTU, will speak. Mrs. G. H. Templeton and Mrs. V. E. Burson will provide special music throughout the day.

A prayer at 3 o'clock will close the conference. All friends of the organization are invited to attend.

Two literature groups of the American Association of University Women meet next Wednesday.

The afternoon group will be at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Adolf Lietuvielis. The evening one will be at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Mildred Christenson.

TELE-VIEWS

Radio-Television

By DAVE BLACKMER

YOUR FOR TRE TELE-VIEWING SUNDAY
 Omnibus 1:30, "The Abacadaba Kid" by Wm. Saroyan; "Paul Revere's Ride" with Ramond Massey; and Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial by Jury," Martyn Green.
 Jack Benny Show at 4:30 will have as guest Jack's old feuding friend Fred Allen.

Comedy Hour 5:00. Bob Hope and Phil Harris vie for affections of Marilyn Maxwell, while together they present a musical salute to baseball.

Fred Waring 6:00, Premiere of musical entitled 'Israel,' in honor of that country's fifth anniversary.
 Mr. Peepers, in supervising entire work of the student editors on the school paper has to decide whether to uphold the freedom of the press or "kill" a student-written editorial.

Red Skelton 7:00. Red presents "This Is Your Strife," his version of "This Is Your Life." Boy Foy, trick cyclist is to appear as guest.
 Studio One 8:00. Mercedes McCambridge and James Dunn star in "Shadow of the Devil," tale of a girl left penniless in Rome when her young artist husband is killed in an auto accident. Desperate, she allows herself to become influenced by an evil woman.

Television Playhouse 9:00 starring Lloyd Bridges. Tale of a German-born artist living in America who returns to his homeland only to find that he is an American at heart.

Meet the Press. 11 p.m. A panel of newsmen will interview Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay.

YOURS FOR THE TELE-VIEWING MONDAY
 Kate Smith Show 1. Robert Shackleton, Evelyn Ward, musical comedy singers; Senator WAYNE MORSE of Oregon and The Story Princess.
 Matinee Theater 3:00. "Next of Kin," spy story with J. Edgar Hoover.

Wild Bill Hickok 5:00 "Ghost Breakers." Bill and Jingles run into Ghosts, fortune tellers and strange unexplainable robberies.

Lyons Thursday to inspect the site.
 On May 17, a picnic, consisting of a pot luck meal, will be held for adults who are interested in taking part in this project—in leadership, helping to clean and repair the cabin, and various other jobs.

Those making the trip to the site were: Mrs. Howard Means, Mill City; Mrs. Neabeth, Mrs. Hugh Johnston, Mrs. Jack Christensen, Lyons; Mrs. Adam Moore, Mrs. Robert Norton, chairman for the day camp, Mrs. Gene Teague, Mrs. Angus Ware, Mrs. Harold Wodtly and Mrs. Marvin Reed.

THIS'LL FIX 'EM
 Sacramento, Calif. (AP) — Speeding California motorists who keep their eyes peeled for patrol cars and motorcycles may get pinched anyhow.
 A bill before the state legislature would authorize some highway patrolmen to drive in plain, black automobiles.

On Television
KPTV (Channel 27)
 (Only programs scheduled in advance)

SATURDAY
 11:00—Kids and Co.
 1:00—Horse Racing
 1:30—Talent Patrol
 2:00—Date With Judy
 2:30—Victory at Sea
 3:00—Lone Ranger
 3:30—Arthur Godfrey
 4:00—TV Teen Club
 4:30—Blondie Brown
 5:00—All Star Revue
 6:00—Show of Shows
 7:30—Bill Parry
 8:00—Jackie Gleason
 9:00—Dangerous Assignment
 9:30—Wrestling Headliners
 10:00—Balance Your Budget
 10:30—Boston Blackie
 11:00—Mr. and Mrs. North
 11:30—Nash Theater

MARR RADIO
 and
TELEVISION INC

Salem's Most Complete Television Center
 2140 S. Com'l
 Phone Day or Night
 2-1611 or 2-4728
Motorola TV

SUNDAY
 10:30 a.m.—Frontiers of Faith
 11:00 a.m.—Candy Carnival
 12:00 p.m.—This Is the Life
 12:30 p.m.—Life Begins at 40
 1:15—Hour of Decision
 1:30—Omnibus
 2:00—Three Guesses
 2:15—Art Linkletter
 2:30—See It Now
 4:00—Kukla, Fran and Ollie
 4:30—Jack Benny
 5:00—Comedy Hour
 6:00—Fred Waring
 6:30—Mr. Peepers

Kaye-Halbert
SALES SERVICE

MASTER SERVICE

STATIONS, INC.
 365 N. Commercial
 Phone 3-4163

SUNDAY NIGHT
 7:30 P.M.
DREW PEARSON
 RADIO SALIN
KSLM
 Hear America's Most Controversial Commentator
 Presented by
Dr. Harry Semler, Dentist

FAST WORK

Get Camp Site For Girl Scouts

Stayton—The leaders of the Girl Scouts in the Santiam area are working toward establishing a day camp for the Scouts in Stayton and the entire canyon area. There are six Scout troops in Stayton, alone.

A camp site has been donated by G. Paul Johnston. It consists of 56 acres near Lyons and is easily accessible. When completed it would be used as a day camp, picnic area and for over night trips.

There is a log cabin on the site.

Leaders from Mill City, Lyons, and Stayton traveled to

'7 Come 11' Costs 3 Policemen Their Jobs

Memphis, Tenn. (AP) — Three police department employees in the police motor pool were out of jobs today. They failed to answer the telephone when the police phoned for a vehicle.

When the cops investigated, the first thing they heard complaint from the garage was "Seven come eleven." A game of chance, frowned upon by the police, was in progress.

Bus Stop Changed

Lebanon — A change in depot location effective at once has been announced by Trailways Bus line. The coaches will now arrive and depart from Sharon's Sweet shop at 555 Main St. Mrs. Louis Beach will be commission agent, and will be assisted by Sharon Beach and Margaret Surrey. Buses formerly were stopping on Park St.

Silverton Girl Sets High Mark

Silverton — Silverton High School senior class scholastic honors were announced today by Howard W. George, principal. Miss Nola Whittaker will be the 1953 class valedictorian, with one of the highest grade averages in recent years.

Nola has received only one grade of less than a "one" in her entire high school career. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Whittaker of 802 North First St.

Salutatorian is Richard Klopfenstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Klopfenstein of Route 3, Silverton. Richard also has an outstanding record, having received only three grades of less than a "one" during his four years in high school.

Other students ranking among the first five in the class of 67 include May Wasson, who is third in the class, Nadine Small, who places fourth, and Howard Poppleton, fifth.

Commencement exercises for the class are scheduled for Wednesday, June 3, and the Baccalaureate services are to be held on Sunday evening, May 31.

An Air Force helicopter pulls Capt. Joseph McConnell of Apple Valley, Calif., out of icy Yellow Sea waters off North Korean coast two minutes after he had bailed out of his crippled F-86 Sabrejet. Capt. McConnell had just shot down his eighth MIG when his plane was hit by a second MIG. (UP Telephoto)

Fairview

Fairview — Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Andrews and niece, Linda Burchett, of the Fairview district were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Appleberry at Salem. The dinner honored Mrs. Andrews on her birthday.

H. J. Andrews of Portland after four weeks spent with his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Andrews, of Fairview district returned to his home Friday.

Mrs. Mildred Paetel of Portland was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Andrews in Fairview district Tuesday.

Mothers at Brooks Study School Health

Brooks—Mothers of prospective first graders met at the school Thursday with the health nurse, Miss Edith Haulman, to assist the mothers in filling out child health cards and to familiarize them with the many services available to them through the health department.

A film was shown by Edward Olson of social development. Mrs. Phillip Beilke, president of the Brooks PTA gave the welcome, as prospective members for next year.

Guests were Mrs. Bernice Yeary, director of nurses of the health department, and Mrs. Betty Sanders, Marion county supervisor of schools, who spoke on the many things the mothers could do to assist the teacher before the child enters school.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. William Pfau, health chairman for that area, and Mrs. India Reavis first grade teacher, who were assisted by Mrs. C. E. Hicks.

The U. S. Bureau of Land Management says the red harvester ant had denuded 90,000 acres of public land in Wyoming.

Everyone Reads Classified!

Whatever You Have to Sell
Whatever You Have to Rent

Chances are you'll find someone who is looking for just that very thing through the Capital Journal classified columns.

Try It NOW
 Phone 22406 Before 10 A.M. to Place Your Classified Ad For the Same Day's Paper

SAY "CHARGE IT"

Capital Journal

PH. 22406

FREE 10-FOOT MAST AND ANTENNA
 COMPLETE WITH MAST—90-DAY SERVICE POLICY
ON ALL CROSLY 21" CONSOLES FOR ONE WEEK ONLY
 Also One Year Guarantee on All Parts and Picture Tube

HOCKER HARDWARE
 990 S. Commercial Open Sundays