

CHAIRMAN MEETS WITH GROUP ON TEA

THROUGH THE silver tea on Thursday, the Salem Memorial Hospital auxiliary expects to raise a substantial sum towards its project of buying equipment for the hospital. Left to right: Mrs. Lester F. Barr, Mrs. Daniel Fry, Jr., and Mrs. Charles H. Heitzel, the latter co-chairman with Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Sr., for the tea.

(Jensen-Miller studio picture)

ANOTHER GROUP DISCUSSES PLANS FOR TEA

FOUR OTHERS assisting with plans for the hospital tea next week are pictured above, left to right: Mrs. Arthur Erickson, Mrs. Adam Lefor, who is superintendent of nurses at the Salem Memorial; Mrs. Ursula S. Page and Mrs. Stephen Sherman, who is president of the auxiliary.

(Jensen-Miller studio picture)

ON Monday evening, Mrs. Stanley A. Brown will be installed as worthy high priestess of Willamette shrine No. 2, White Shrine of Jerusalem. The public ceremony will take place at the Masonic temple, at 8 o'clock.

Other officers to be installed are: W. P. Lessard, watchman of shepherds; Mrs. Dorr M. Shreve, noble prophetess; Jesse L. Hatch, associate watchman of shepherds; Mrs. Pearl J. Speer, worthy scribe; Mrs. Myra Ward, worthy treasurer; Mrs. Dan B. Roth, worthy chaplain; Mrs. Al Lightner, worthy shepherdess; Mrs. G. W. Howe, worthy guide; Mrs. W. W. McKinney, worthy herald; Stanley A. Brown, first wise man; John Christensen, second wise man; Dorr M. Shreve, third wise man; Everett C. Holt, king; Mrs. Jack Stagner, queen; Mrs. Mildred Lamberty, first hand maid; Mrs. Katherine Dodds, second hand maid; Mrs. J. E. Van Wynn, third hand maid; Mrs. Ronald Gardner, worthy organist; Mrs. Bess Shelton, worthy guardian; C. P. Davis, worthy guard.

Installation will be conducted by Mrs. Sam Bentley, worthy high priestess; John E. Jones, watchman of shepherds; Mrs. Byron B. Herrick, chaplain; Mrs. Ben Roy, herald; Mrs. Abner Kline, scribe; Mrs. Clarence Conner, organist; Miss Constance Kantner, guardian; Mrs. Donald Caton, inviting herald; Mrs. W. W. McKinney, inviting organist.

A reception and musical program will follow the installation. Members of Willamette shrine will meet for a business meeting at 4 o'clock, Monday afternoon, at the Masonic temple.

All nine guilds in St. Paul's Episcopal church are cooperating in plans for the annual luncheon to be given for all women of the church on Friday, May 1. The luncheon will be in the parish hall, serving starting at 11:30 o'clock.

Mrs. R. D. Barton and Mrs. J. E. Law are co-chairmen for the event.

St. Anne's guild, Mrs. James Walton president, is to contribute salads and be in charge of decorations.

St. Mary's guild, Mrs. S. D. Wiles as president, is to contribute salads.

St. Agnes guild, Mrs. Hazel Johnson as the president, is to supply coffee and butter for the luncheon.

St. Cecilia's guild, Mrs. H. B. Collins, president, will furnish coffee and butter.

The Junior guild, of which Mrs. John S. Tyler, Jr. is president, and St. Elizabeth's guild, Mrs. Philip W. Allison as president, will furnish hot dishes, cream and sugar.

St. Helena's guild, Mrs. M. E. Knickerbocker, president, and St. Paul's guild, Mrs. R. D. Barton, president, will furnish the cakes and cookies.

Two representatives from each guild will assist about the room. Supervising the coffee urn will be Mrs. Wayne Gordon. In charge of hot dishes is Mrs. A. H. Gilie; plates and silver, Mrs. Frank Snaer; salads, Mrs. Gordon Shattuck and Mrs. Fred Decke; cake, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. Homer Egan.

Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 43, will meet at 1:30 o'clock on Saturday at the Masonic temple. A sock dance is set for that evening. Five Bethels of Job's Daughters and five chapters of Order of DeMolay for Boys being invited to attend the party at the temple.

Beginning in May, Bethel No. 43 will meet at the Scottish Rite temple on the second and fourth Monday nights of each month.

Jay Blair will be guest caller for Capitol O Square Dance club Monday evening, the practice period to begin at 8:15 o'clock at the Catholic Center. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Miller will head the program committee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vavrick and Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Nelson, assisting.

Dinner Events

Four dinner groups are arranged for members of Marion-Polk Medical society auxiliary on Tuesday evening, each dinner to be a no-host affair at 8:30 o'clock. Each group is conducting a white elephant sale to augment auxiliary funds. The four gatherings are arranged as follows:

One, with Mrs. W. Wells Baum; Mrs. Hugh Dowd, Mrs. Vern W. Miller and Mrs. Douglas Thompson as co-hostesses. Another group, at the home of Mrs. William L. Lidbeck with Mrs. Roscoe Wilson and Mrs. Don Woodard as co-hostesses.

A third group, at the home of Mrs. Willard Thompson with Mrs. Harmon Harvey and Mrs. Joseph Moreland assisting hostesses.

The fourth group, with Mrs. Charles Mills; Mrs. Lynn M. Hammerstad and Mrs. Woodson Bennett as co-hostesses.

Women from many Willamette valley cities will meet in Cottage Grove on Thursday and Friday, April 23 and 24, for the 82nd annual meeting of the Willamette Presbyterian society. General theme of the two-day meeting will be "Walk As He Walked," with sessions to take place in the Cottage Grove Presbyterian church.

Principal speaker for the conference will be Miss Eleanor Ewing of San Francisco, who is secretary for the board of missions for the western area. She will speak Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. Miss Ewing also will conduct installation of officers and a dedication service at the meeting.

Other speakers will be Mrs. A. B. Cutler of Portland, president of the Synodical Society of Oregon, and the Rev. John Crothers, a former missionary to Korea.

Mrs. Charles A. Sprague of Salem will give her impressions of the United Nations assembly on Friday afternoon when she speaks before the group.

Events planned include a coffee at 9:30 a.m. on Thursday, the Springfield society in charge, and a social hour Thursday evening to be directed by the Creswell group. Special music will be presented by a high school octette from Cottage Grove and the church choir.

Attending the sessions from Salem will be Mrs. Robert Stutzman, president of the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church; Mrs. Harold A. Rosebraugh, Mrs. Paul N. Joling, Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. John Andrews and Mrs. Walter F. Sieber. Representing the Salem Presbyterian society will be Mrs. E. A. Collier, chairman of the nominating committee; Miss Elizabeth Hogg, stewardship secretary; Mrs. Curtis A. Hale, treasurer-elect; Mrs. Valter Pugh, sewing secretary-elect; Mrs. Eugene R. Manock, children's secretary; Mrs. Glenn C. Sanders, vice-president.

Mrs. Harry VanArsdale of Woodburn, world service secretary; Mrs. Robert Harner of Gervais, recording secretary-elect; and Mrs. Lester Hathaway of Mill City, literature secretary, will attend the meeting as official representatives of their societies.

Bethel U.D. Job's Daughters, will meet at Beaver hall at 7:30 p.m. Monday, April 20.

A pie social will feature the program for Garfield school Mothers and Dads club Tuesday evening. Mrs. Thomas Roen, Jr., is in charge. Nomination of officers is on the business agenda, the meeting to begin at 7:30 p.m.

A no-host luncheon is scheduled for the social meeting of the American War Mothers, Salem chapter, on Tuesday at noon. Mrs. George Pro will entertain the group at her home, 1915 Maple avenue. Mrs. Martin Vlesko and Mrs. Ben Randall assisting. Each member is to take her own table service.

DELEGATES attending the spring district conference in Seattle this week-end will give their reports as program features for the luncheon meeting of Salem club of Zonta International, next Thursday noon, at the Golden Pheasant.

Miss Echo Yeater is delegate from the Salem club. Others attending are Miss Genevieve Morgan, Dr. Helen Pearce, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Mary Thomas. The conference is for clubs in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia.

A program of songs will be presented by Jeannette McMillan, mezzo soprano, at the Salem Women's club on Friday afternoon. Her accompanist will be Mrs. Paul Hale. A book review will be given by Mrs. George Rossman.

Chairman of the tea hour will be Mrs. Gerald A. Reehar, and assisting her will be Mrs. L. M. Ramage, Mrs. Howard R. Pickett, Mrs. C. L. Bowes, Mrs. Paul Griebenow, Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson, Mrs. L. H. McMahan, Mrs. Ben F. Lambert and Mrs. Howard B. Jenks.

There will be no board meeting preceding the 2 o'clock session.

Salem Heights — Mrs. O. E. Welling will entertain the Little Garden Club of Salem Heights on Thursday, April 23, at a 1 o'clock dessert at her home at 1333 Boone road. Mrs. Francis Colgan will be the assisting hostess.

The group will go on a tour of the Welling gardens.

Circles of Woman's Society of Christian Service, Jason Lee Methodist church, will meet on Wednesday at the following places:

January-July and February-August circles at 1:30 p.m. in the Kirby room at the church.

May-November and March-September circles with Mrs. Oscar Lindquist, route 1, box 8, Brooks. Following devotions led by Mrs. Ernest P. Goulder, Mrs. H. J. Smith will conduct a study class on Africa. Cars will leave the church at 12:45 p.m.

April-October circle will not meet this month. June-December circle will meet at 1:30 p.m. with Mrs. Arthur E. Cummings, 340 Cummings lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dilatash are chairmen for a no-host dinner for Cherry court, Order of Amaranth, the event being set for 6:30 o'clock, Wednesday, at the Scottish Rite temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gallaspy, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Guenther and Mrs. David Tolle will make up the committee.

Following the dinner, officers will practice for public installation which will be at the Scottish Rite temple at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, April 28.

Mrs. Owen Seary will entertain the Dabblers club Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Wilbur Tripp and Mrs. Paul Burger will assist the hostess at her home, 1535 Olive. A Mother's day program will be featured.

General meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, First Methodist church, will be on Wednesday in the Carrier room of the church at 12:30 p.m., members to bring a sack lunch.

Mrs. L. H. Randle will lead a worship service at 1:30 o'clock, which will be followed by installation of officers and special music. A film, "Widening Fellowships," will be shown after the meeting.

At State Event

Several Salem women will be in Klamath Falls next week-end to attend the state conference for Oregon division, American Association of University Women.

Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton, now of Salem, as first vice-president of the state organization will be among those attending. She is in line to become the state president at this meeting.

Mrs. Paul L. Patterson, wife of Oregon's governor, will be at the meeting as one of the speakers. She is on the state board as chairman of by-laws.

Mrs. Floyd L. Utter, who has been state fellowship chairman this term, also will be among those going from here.

Mrs. Thomas W. Churchill, president of Salem branch, Mrs. Arthur Sprague, Miss Mildred Christensen, Miss Eloise Ebert, Mrs. Nora Thompson, Mrs. John H. Hann are among others planning to attend from here.

Social afternoon club of Ainsworth chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will meet for luncheon at noon on Thursday at the Masonic temple. Mrs. Leonard Howe will be hostess for the day and Mrs. Morse Stewart will show movies on a recent trip to Mexico.

Mrs. Stanley Krueger will entertain past presidents of Capital unit No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, at her home in Independence, Thursday evening. A no-host dinner is set for 6:30 o'clock, and guests are asked to bring their own table service. Hostesses for the party will be Mrs. Krueger, Mrs. Mem Pearce, Mrs. James H. Turnbull and Mrs. Art Johnson.

Anyone wishing transportation to the Krueger home, 180 B street, may contact a member of the committee.

MR. AND MRS. KEITH MOOTRY

WED LAST Sunday in the First Presbyterian church were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Mootry (Claudette Smith). The bride is the daughter of E. L. Smith of Salem and Mrs. William Woelke of Glendale, Calif. Mr. Mootry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mootry of Salem.

(Jensen-Miller studio picture)

Doll Show and Silver Tea On Wednesday

Calendared for next Wednesday is the silver tea and doll show of Junior guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, the event to be in the parish hall between 3 and 5 o'clock.

More than 300 dolls will be on display from the collection of Mrs. John Roiller of Seilo, formerly of Chicago.

Pouring at the tea will be Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. J. N. Chambers, Mrs. Earl T. Andresen, Mrs. Custer Ross, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. Paul Gemmill, Mrs. Cal Patton, Miss Virginia Nowlin, Mrs. Rue Drager.

Mrs. W. C. Gabriel and Mrs. J. F. Causey are co-chairmen for the benefit. On the reception committee are Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Louise Muller, Mrs. J. N. Chambers, Mrs. William H. Lytle. On the hospitality committee are Mrs. Earl T. Andresen, Mrs. Rue Drager, Mrs. George H. Swift.

Serving on the kitchen committee are Mrs. H. B. Walters, Mrs. Carl A. Dorfner, Mrs. Donald H. Upjohn, Mrs. John E. Wood, Mrs. Gerald Fisher, Mrs. A. D. Brown and Mrs. John S. Tyler, Jr. are the publicity committee. Members of the refreshments committee are Mrs. Frank D. Bligh, Mrs. Miller B. Hayden, Mrs. W. H. Damery, Mrs. John D. Graham, Mrs. Alvin Hartley, Silverton, Mrs. Dale Young, Mrs. George L. Moses, Mrs. Lawrence Osterman, Mrs. Perry P. Whitmore.

Officers for the coming year are announced for the Insurance Women's association.

Mrs. Sid Rising, a past president, conducted the installation of new executive board members at this week's meeting as follows: Miss Leona Teske, president; Mrs. Amy Seidler, vice-president; Mrs. Bernard Nanneman, recording secretary; Mrs. George B. Gadeholt, treasurer, and Mrs. H. A. Pontius of Albany, corresponding secretary.

Miss Nila Cluett, outgoing president, was presented with a national association club pin, and Mrs. Opal Lewis received the member-of-the-year award. Gifts for outstanding service during the past year were given to Mrs. Sidney Rising, Mrs. Amy Seidler, Mrs. Bernard Nanneman, and to the Albany members, Mrs. Elaine Kittleson, Miss Catherine Bain, Mrs. Nellie Grove, Mrs. Francis Ziegler, Mrs. Ruby Muller, Mrs. H. A. Pontius and Mrs. Kenneth Smart.

Interesting scenery slides of the Bavarian Alps and Austrian countryside and interior closeups of the famous castles built by "Mad King Ludwig" of Bavaria were shown by Mrs. Eise Allen, who toured that sector of Europe in 1951.

Following the business and entertainment, there was an informal reception welcoming the new officers.

Visitors were Mrs. Rose Pavlov, Mrs. W. L. Woelke, Mrs. Maxine King, Mrs. Dorothy Hodges and Mrs. Peery Buren; and from Albany, Mrs. H. O. Griffith.

Mrs. Marguerite Kirk, a past president, has invited the members to her home on Fir street for a Sunday evening farewell gathering in honor of Mrs. Sue Pooch who will leave on Tuesday for Anchorage, Alaska, where she has accepted a position in an insurance agency.

International relations group of the American Association of University Women is meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Dennis Patch. Mrs. A. F. deLespinasse is to be the hostess.

Mrs. Henry Kayser will direct an educational program at the meeting of Credit Women's Breakfast club at McGraw's restaurant, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock.

International relations group of the American Association of University Women is meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Dennis Patch. Mrs. A. F. deLespinasse is to be the hostess.

Mrs. Henry Kayser will direct an educational program at the meeting of Credit Women's Breakfast club at McGraw's restaurant, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Henry Kayser will direct an educational program at the meeting of Credit Women's Breakfast club at McGraw's restaurant, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock.