'Round-Up' For UO Alumni Set

Notices are out for the first annual "Round-Up" for Salem alumni of University of Oregon.

The event will be a dinner and program on Wednesday, April 29, at Marion hotel, the no-host dinner to be at 8:30 o'clock, the program at 7:30 o'clock. All alumni, UO parents and friends are invited.

Five faculty members from UO will be here to give talks, the group including Dean William C. Jones, dean of administration; Dean James H. Gilbert, emeritus professor of economics; George Hopkins of the school of music faculty; Dr. E. G. Ebbighausen, associate professor of physics; Len Casanova, football coach.

William H. Hammond, alumni director for Marion county in the UO group, is in charge of the "Round-up."

Box Social to Be On Tuesday Evening

A box social is planned for Tuesday by the Esther Little and Margaret Mead Tri-Y groups, Misses Sharon Howe and Noreen Nelson in charge. Guests will be members of Arthur Cotton, A. A. Stag and Claude Kells Hi-Y groups who will bid for the lunches.

The party will be at the home of Miss Janet Kirk, adviser for Margaret Mead Tri-Y, dancing to follow the social. Mrs. Ronald Jones, Jr., is adviser to the Esther Little group. Those attending will meet in front of the Y for transportation to the Kirk home.

Girl Scouts Day Camp Being Set Up

Salem District Girl Scouts day camp is being planned. The camp will be at the same site as last year—Crestwood Acres. It will be June 8-10 on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The camp committee, headed by Mrs. Ivan Curl, is busy reviewing the needs of camp, both in physical aspects and the phase of staff. Applications for positions on the camp staff are now being received.

All leaders, assistant leaders, committee members or any interested adults are asked to contact Mrs. Curl at 3-8986. Day camp training will be given after the staff is filled.

College Chorus To Sing Here

Marylhurst college chorus, assisted by soloists of the Marylhurst music department, will be presented in concert in the Parrish Junior high school auditorium in Salem on Tuesday evening, April 28. The program, scheduled to begin at 8:15, is being sponsored by St. Joseph's Catholic church.

The Marylhurst chorus of 40 voices will open the program with choice choral works of the 17th and 18th centuries. Further offerings will include a group of Americana.

Miss Grace Corey of Salem, a Marylhurst sophomore, will be soloist with the chorus. Songs in folk flavor will be sung by the Choralists, a group of nine selected voices.

Miss Lou Stears, young composer-pianist, whose opera, "The Twilight Saint," will be sung in Portland during National Music Week, will be the first soloist to appear. She will play Sonata No. 3 of Prokofiev. Vocal soloists will be Misses Phyllis Corliss and Anna Cheng, sopranos. Miss Corliss will sing the popular "Gavotte" from "Manon." Miss Cheng has chosen "One Fine Day" from "Madam Butterfly" for her first Salem appearance. Other soloists will be Misses Betty Jean Weber, pianist, and Claire LeMay, violinist.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained at St. Joseph's church.

Delegates from Oregon include Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Klamath Falls, republican national committeewoman from Oregon; Mrs. James W. Mott, Salem, vice-chairman of the republican state central committee (who will be unable to attend), and 13 other women from all parts of the state.

DANCING followed the no-host dinner for the Encampment and Ladies Encampment auxiliary Friday evening. A refreshment committee was named for the May 1 meeting and serving will be Mrs. Charley Neubauer, Mrs. Hazel Gibbs and Mrs. Laura Stockton.

Miss Croisan, Mr. Allen To be Wed This Summer

Surprise news for a group of friends attending an informal dinner party Saturday evening was announcement of the engagement of Miss Mariann Croisan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Croisan of Salem, to Edwin E. Allen, Eugene, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Allen of Cottage Grove.

The dinner was given at the Croisan home for a group of 14. Tiny nosegays were at each place with the announcement concealed in them. A large nosegay arrangement centered the table.

The wedding is planned for the late summer.

Miss Croisan has been on the faculty of Salem senior high school for the past three years. She is a graduate of Oregon State college, is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and of Salem Spinners club.

Mr. Allen is a graduate of University of Oregon and its law school. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity and of Phi Beta Kappa scholastic honorary and of Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity. While on the campus he was president of the Associated Students of University of Oregon, also president of the UO law school student body. He is now a member of the law firm of Reid, Bartle and Allen in Eugene.

Republican Group Meets This Week

Several Oregon women will be in Washington, D.C., to take in the conference for republican women leaders from the 48 states on April 23-24. Miss Bertha S. Adkins, Salisbury, Md., assistant to the chairman of the republican national committee, in charge of women's activities, heads the organization for the planning of the conference.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower and cabinet and congressional spokesmen will be on the program.

Delegates from Oregon include Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Klamath Falls, republican national committeewoman from Oregon; Mrs. James W. Mott, Salem, vice-chairman of the republican state central committee (who will be unable to attend), and 13 other women from all parts of the state.

DANCING followed the no-host dinner for the Encampment and Ladies Encampment auxiliary Friday evening. A refreshment committee was named for the May 1 meeting and serving will be Mrs. Charley Neubauer, Mrs. Hazel Gibbs and Mrs. Laura Stockton.

INVITATIONS are out for a May day coffee for which Mrs. William H. Hammond and Mrs. Garlen Simpson are to entertain on Friday, May 1, at the Hammond residence on Fairmount Hill.
