Stayton—Wed April 18 in the Immaculate Conception Catholic church were Miss Darlene Dozler and Ronald Daniel Meier. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Marking of Stayton. Mr. Meier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Meier of Sublimity.

The service was at 9:30 a.m., the Rev. Matt Jonas officiating. White Calla lilies, yellow snapdragons and irises decorated the church for the ceremony. Mr. Marking gave his stepdaughter in marriage. The bride wore a dress of white slipper satin with a panel of Chantilly lace down the front of a full skirt which was fashioned with a train. The fitted bodice was of the lace and formed a scalloped edge to the net yoke. The lace sleeves extended in points over the wrists. A coronet of pleated lace, trimmed with pearls, held the illusions veil in place. The bride carried a colonial nosegay edged with white satin leaves and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Sharon Meier of Sublimity, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. She wore a frock of Nile green net over taffeta. Her headpiece was of Nile green net.

The bridesmaids were Misses Gay Lesley and Wanda Lambrecht of Stayton and Lela Boedigheimer of Sublimity. The three wore dresses made identically to the maid of honor's. All the attendants carried nosegays of yellow daisies edged with yellow satin leaves.

Mary Marking, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white organdy dress over an eyelet embroidered ruffled skirt. She carried a white basket of deep yellow daisies. In her hair she wore a garland of daisies and yellow ribbon.

The ring bearer was Eddie Sattley. Bryce Dozler, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The groomsmen were Gerald Kintz, cousin of the bridegroom, and Donovan Steward, cousin of the bride. Ushers were Theodore Highbarger of Aumsville, and Norman Rauscher of Sublimity.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Marking wore a navy dressmaker suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Meier, mother of the bridegroom, wore a yellow and gray suit with matching stole. Her accessories were black and her corsage was of tallisam roses. The reception following was in St. Mary's parish hall which was decorated with white, yellow and green crepe paper streamers and white bells, forming a canopy over the serving table.

Assisting were Mrs. Louis Gisler of Scio, Mrs. Robert James, Mrs. Henry Jescher, Mrs. Vincent Mertz and Mrs. Edward Welter, all of Stayton; Miss Darlene Kintz of Sublimity, cousin of the bridegroom; Miss Jeannette Kintz, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Joyce Grimes, both of Stayton; Mrs. Lou Doerfler of Mehama, Mrs. Ambrose Dozler, godmother of the bride; Mrs. Harold Church of Sutherlin, aunt of the bride; Mrs. William Williamson of Stayton, great aunt of the bride; Mrs. Peter Boedigheimer of Sublimity, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Paul Dozler of Aumsville, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Frank Rauscher of Sublimity, aunt of the bride; and Mrs. Ray Huggins of Scio, aunt of the bridegroom.

Serving were the Misses Marilyn Nakelby, Sandra Davis, Ariene Minten, Marcella Minten, Nancy Neilson, Lois O'Connor and Arden Bye, all of Stayton. In charge of refreshments were Ambrose Dozler, god father of the bride; Walter Dozler of Scio, uncle of the bride; Harry Jones of Stayton, uncle of the bride, and Lloyd MacDonald of Aloha, uncle of the bride.

For going away the bride wore a powder blue and brown tweed suit with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple will be at home at 170 High street following a wedding trip to California.

Today's Menu

Company Dinner Honey-glazed Duck Fluffy Mashed Potatoes Broccoli with Lemon Sauce Bread and Butter Salad Bowl Fruit Sherbet Beverage

Honey-glazed Duck Ingredients: One 4 to 5 pound (ready-to-cook weight) Long Island duckling, 4 tablespoons honey, 2 teaspoons soy sauce.

Method: Remove giblets from duck and cut off neck. (Save giblets and neck for soup if desired.) Wash duck, inside and out, with cold water; dry. Place duck, breast side up, on a flat rack in a shallow baking pan about 10 by 14 inches deep, not more than 3 inches deep. Roast in slow (325F) oven for 35 minutes per pound. After 1 hour of roasting, pour off fat in roasting pan if it is to be used in later cooking. Mix honey and soy sauce; brush duck carefully and thoroughly with about half of mixture. Continue roasting until done. Remove duck from oven; brush with remaining honey mixture and place under broiler heat; quickly brown further on front and back. Makes 4 servings.
