

Kirkendall Hurt As Willamette Defeats Pilots

Portland (P) - Willamette defeated Portland University 10-4 in a baseball game here Monday but lost the services, at least temporarily, of Third Baseman Tex Kirkendall.

'He was hospitalized with a concussion after he collided with Portland's Pudy Satalich in the second inning.

Willamette's big inning was the fourth with five runs on four singles, a walk, a hit batter and a wild pitch.

The Pederson-Szasz match highlights a grappling card which gets underway with pre-liminaries at 8:30 p.m.

Pederson, who physically is one of the strongest men in the sport of wrestling today, uses a powerful full nelson as his chief offensive weapon. But Szasz apparently isn't afraid of Pederson's full nelson, or any other hold Ped-erson might have for that matter. Szasz and Pederson have wrestled each other twice in Portland recently, with each man winning one of the matches.

So tonight's battle will be In the nature of a rubber match. And it might be added that Pederson and Szasz haven't built up any love for each other in their previous two matches.

San Francisco (U.E)_The San Francisco Seals today were surprising even their most rabid supporters in the three - week - old Pacific Coast League pennant chase.

Consigned to a cellar berth in most pre-season forecasts the Seals are battling for a first division berth — and if Tommy Heath's men maintain their sudden strength with the willow they can become a def-inite threat to the top clubs.

San Francisco split a twin bill with Oakland last night, Davis, bases-loaded homer in the ninth inning.

The Seals wound up a week's stay in Oakland on the long end of a 5-2 series with their bitter rivals. Except for Howerton's blast, the Acorns had little to rejoice about for they're now nine games off the pace.

Red Sox Soph Hits Three Homers in Double Header

New York, (0.8)—Dick Gernert, who passed his freshman course under professor Lou Boudreau with flying colors, looked like a star student for the Red Sox again this year

Dandy Dick, the big first baseman from Reading, Pa., baseman from Reading, Pa., smashed three home runs yessmashed three home runs yesterday in 4 to 2 and 11 to 4 victories over the Senators as they finally got around to opening the season in Boston with a morning-afternoon Patriot's Day double header.

Gernert. 2 22-var-old

Gernert, a 23-year-old right handed swinger from Louisville after last season was well underway, credits Boudreau with his rapid de-velopment. He hit 19 homers and drove in 67 runs in 102 games in 1952.

"He puts young guys like me right into the lineup and lets us learn how to hit big league pitching by playing against it all the time," he said.

He drove in six runs for the day. In the opener, his two homers gave Lefty Mel Parnell the victory margin. Parnell pitched six-hit ball until he was relieved in the eighth.

Robin Roberts, number one pitcher in the majors last season, pitched one of his most brilliant games, a three-hit, 2 to 1 decision for the Phils at New York in which homers by Johnny which homers by Johnny Wyrostek and Gran Ham-ner gave him his win.
