Prisoner to Go on Trip

Judge George R. Duncan of the Marion county circuit court Tuesday issued an order that will permit taking Frank Cannon to Wallowa county for arraignment and plea April 23 on a charge of being an habitual criminal.

Cannon is being held in the state penitentiary as an habitual criminal. The case was brought before Judge Duncan upon Cannon's application for a writ of habeas.

In his ruling Judge Duncan pointed out that Cannon was being taken to Wallowa county for the purpose of arraignment and plea. The trip, he added, was not for the purpose of a trial, and Cannon is to be brought back to Marion county to continue under the custody of the warden of the prison.

The records show that Cannon was convicted of a charge of rape, which bears the maximum sentence of 20 years. The court, however, sentenced him to life on the understanding that it was Cannon's fourth felony offense.

Cannon contends he has served his sentence on the rape charge, taking into consideration time gained through good conduct. He was admitted to the penitentiary May 17, 1937.

Upon his return to Marion county, Cannon will appear before Judge Duncan for further legal proceedings.

Considerable interest attached to the Cannon case in view of the release a few weeks ago of Joseph Poggi, who had been sent up from Clackamas county on an habitual criminal charge after he had been convicted of burglary.

Realigning Road on Fork Being Studied

Further investigation as to the desirability of realigning

a mile and a quarter of the road up the Little North Fork of the Santiam river will be made before the county court reaches a decision as to whether it will expend public money on the project.

The realignment is being sought by loggers who are using the road extensively. A preliminary investigation reveals that the project sought would cost in the neighborhood of $20,000. Considerable improvement in the present right of way could be made for half of that sum, the court believes.

The court pointed out that it has made no commitments in connection with the project.

Seattle Girl Killed in Israel

Jerusalem (AP)—Israeli police pressed a search Tuesday for the slayers of a Seattle, Wash., girl and her uncle, a former resident of Lakewood, N.J., who were found shot to death Monday in the uncle's home here.

Authorities said the house was ransacked and all evidence indicated that the killers were marauders.

The victims were Deborah Genauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Genauer of Seattle, Wash., and Zvi Genauer, who went to Israel a little more than a year ago with his wife and five children.

Police said they apparently shot with a sten gun at close range. The girl's body was found in bed and her uncle's slumped over a table on which was opened the Talmud Hebrew religious book.

Miss Genauer, a graduate of Brooklyn College who had planned to return home to be married but had stayed over a few extra days for the celebration of the fifth anniversary of Israel's independence.

Governor Signs Bridge Toll Bill

Gov. Patterson signed into law Monday a bill to allow tolls levied on the Interstate bridge between Portland and Vancouver. The money will be used to finance a new bridge.

Washington State already has a similar law, and the two states will sign an agreement governing construction and financing of the new bridge.

The governor also signed the bill to permit counties to have voting machines at elections.

27th Birthday, Queen Mourns

Windsor, England (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II turned 27 Tuesday and for the second year in succession observed the birthday occasion in mourning. Last year it was for her father, King George VI; this time, for her grandmother, Queen Mary.

The young monarch invited her closest relatives to a quiet luncheon party here at Windsor Castle. Military and naval commanders all over the British Isles ordered the customary birthday salutes, including one of 41 guns in Hyde Park at noon and another of 62 guns at the Tower of London an hour later.

In keeping with tradition, the official pomp and ceremony celebration of the birthday will be on June 5 — this year three days after Eliza-

Magnuson Hits Cuts in Power, Reclamation

Washington, (AP)—Sen Magnuson (D., Wash.) Monday hung the label "administrative brownout" on the budget bureau's action in slashing more than 36 million dollars from requests for Pacific Northwest power and reclamation projects.

In a statement, Magnuson also called elimination of a request for $4,900,000 for Ice Harbor Dam on the Lower Snake River a "breach of assurances made in the 82nd Congress."

Gen. Eichelberger for Japanese Rearmament

New York (AP)—Lieutenant General Robert L. Eichelberger retired, an "elder statesman" of the U. S. Army, declared firmly today that Japan should
