ACORNS FROM THE Oak Rooms WITH DEL MILNE

"I know Del, you told me to make our reservation for the Style Show way ahead of time but good gee-whis who ever that there would actually be a sell out? I know, but I thought you were all full of promotion or overenthusiastic or something... believe me, next time I'll have my car in plenty early."

Well folks that was the comment of just one lady that did not quite make it. The show was supposed to start at 1 o'clock but when I looked in the dining room door at 12:30 and saw all those beautifully dressed women I thought the show must have started ahead of time. There were many a lady there who could show the models a thing or two and the models had plenty on the ball. The ladies were outspoken in their enthusiasm for another show and already we have set the date of May 18th in case you want to make reservations.
