

UP Fires Polumbaum

New York, (AP)—The United Press said today that Theodore S. Polumbaum, who refused to tell the House Un-American Activities committee in Washington yesterday whether he was a communist, had been dismissed from the service.

Polumbaum had been employed in the U.P. news picture bureau in Boston.

At the committee hearing yesterday he acknowledged that in his application for employment by the U.P. he had said he was not and never had been a communist, but he refused to tell the committee whether this statement was true.

Fashion Expert Here Friday

Muriel Sinclair, White Stag's fashion coordinator for the Pacific Coast, will be in Miller's Department Store all day Friday, April 24, to assist Miller's customers in choosing summer wardrobes and demonstrating the endless versatility of White Stag's new summer sailcloth fashions.

Having had several years experience in retail selling and merchandising in California before joining White Stag, she now works closely with the firm's designing department as well as merchandising and selling.

"In all my visits to specialty and department stores up and down the Pacific Coast, I found a sincere appreciation of women who want to know the best way to blend colors . . . what to take on a holiday trip or vacation. Women are amazed at the endless versatility of White Stag summer playclothes by simply combining a few styles," revealed Miss Sinclair.
