

This Must Not be 'Next Year' for Brooklyn Bums

By CARL LUNDQUIST
New York (AP)—That old battle cry of "wait 'til next year" was backfiring on the Brooklyn Dodgers today—at least in Philadelphia.

Normally, no matter how badly things go with the Dodgers, the fans always rally around and insist that "next year" things will be better. But the Phillies apparently haven't heard that ancient Plabush proverb. Because they definitely are making things worse for the Dodgers.

Two in a Row
Last night as the Phils made it two victories in a row with a well earned 5 to 4 triumph, they manhandled Billy Loes, the right handed pitcher who had subjected them to all sorts of indignities in 1952.

The Cardinals moved into first place tie with the Phillies by defeating the Reds, 8 to 3, at St. Louis, while the Giants topped the Pirates, 4 to 2, and the Milwaukee Braves pounded the Cubs, 15 to 6.

In the American League, the Yankees made it six wins in their last seven starts by defeating the Red Sox, 6 to 2, while Chicago handed Detroit its fifth straight defeat, 9 to 7, and Philadelphia topped Washington, 7 to 4.

Vinegar Bend Mizell struck out seven and scattered seven hits in the Cardinal victory, as Enos Slaughter hit a triple, two doubles by Solly Hemus, Red Schoendienst, and Ray Jablonski were instrumental blows.

Sub Hits Two Homers
Bob Hofman, filling in for injured second baseman Dave Williams, gave the Giants good cause to consider him as a regular when he hit two homers, a double and single, driving in three runs and scoring three in Jim Hearn's four hitter.

Ed Mathews was the big batsman for the Braves, driving in six runs with two homers and a double in a long-ball hitting spree in which Jack Dittmer also hit a Milwaukee homer with two aboard while Freeton Ward and Hank Sauer homered for Chicago. Max Surkon breezed to his second victory.

Angels Down Seals 5-4 in 12 Frames; Bevos Rained Out

Only 1,539 persons were at Wrigley Field Wednesday night to see the San Francisco Seals and Los Angeles put on a real thriller of a ball game.

The Angels finally triumphed, 5-4, in the 12-inning contest that saw two double plays, a spectacular catch, and two or more men on base for each team in the last three frames.

The Seals grabbed an early 1-0 lead but Angel pitcher "Spec" Padgett smashed a 375-foot home run to tie it up, only to weaken and see the Seals jump into a 4-1 advantage.

Then in the ninth, with the score 4-2, who should smack a double with two men on base but relief pitcher Bill Moisan of Newton, N. H. He tried to score on a shallow single but was thrown out at the plate as Tony Tornay blocked the way.

The winning run was bashed in by catcher Al Evans with the bases loaded and the count 3 and 2. The old curve-baller, Bob Muncie, threw three straight balls. Evans took two strikes, then batted the next pitch straight over second.

In Oakland the Hollywood Stars lost their sixth straight, bowing to the Acorns, 5-4 as catcher Lennie Neal doubled in the ninth with two on.

The San Diego-Settle and Sacramento - Portland games were postponed because of rain.

Szasz Gets Rematch With Eric Pederson

All Szasz, who lost to Eric (The Great) Pederson in the main event of Tuesday's professional wrestling card at the Salem armory, has demanded a rematch with Pederson, and he is getting it.

Szasz and Pederson will meet again next Tuesday at the armory.

Pederson won the third and deciding fall this week after Pederson had leaped over the ropes from the ring apron to land on Szasz.

Zulueta, Brown Battle to Draw

Baltimore (AP)—Orlando Zulueta, Cuban lightweight who went gunning for his third straight victory of the year, had to settle for a 10-round draw Wednesday night against Joe Brown of New Orleans.

The young mittmen aspiring to title ambitions fought a tame bout except for an aggressive flurry by Brown in the eighth. Only 1,035 persons turned out for the nationally televised fight in the Coliseum.

Junior Baseball Meet Scheduled Tonight

An organizational meeting for the Salem junior baseball league will be conducted at 7:30 tonight in the Willamette university gymnasium. All sponsors are asked to send a representative to the meeting. All managers should attend, too, says President Bill Beard.

Dallas Dragons Nose Sheridan

Dallas — Dallas High edged Sheridan high, 4 to 3 in a non-league baseball game Wednesday afternoon. After picking up a single run in the first inning, Dallas tallied three times in the sixth to ice the contest.

Whitman Wins Two

Walla Walla (AP)—Whitman College took both ends of a baseball doubleheader from Eastern Oregon Wednesday, 6-1 and 6-2.
