

Mill City

Miss Ursula Glaeser, Willamette university exchange student from Australia, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Mill City Woman's club Tuesday night, April 21. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. F. H. Keyes, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt and Mrs. Harry Mason.

Spending several days in Mill City during the week were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Henderson and son, Charles of Redmond, former residents here.

Mill City grade school boys played softball with the Marlin-Linn grade schoolers Friday afternoon. Mill City graders won the game — 12-8. Jim Hale is the local grade school coach.

Santiam Rebekah lodge, No. 166, met in regular session Wednesday night with Antonia Thomas, noble grand, and Eva Duffy, vice grand, in charge. It was announced that the lodge would seat the officers at the District No. 7 convention which convenes in Scio in June. Rachel Olmstead was asked to represent the Mill City lodge in the emblem contest at the convention.

Also announced was that about $40 was cleared at the Easter cooked food sale sponsored by the 3-Links club. Rachel Olmstead acted as general chairman of the sale.

The committee appointed to serve for the next meeting included Hattie Fencl, Gladys Podrabsky, Anna Mae McClintock, and Edythe Means.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Davis have both been ill with flu and confined to their home the past week. Also ill with flu and confined at home is Mrs. W. J. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Stewart have purchased the IGA grocery store at Scio. Stewarts have also bought a home there where they and their youngest son, Tommy, will move in the near future.

Charles Stewart and family are moving into his parents home here.

S. W. Stewart recently sold the IGA store in Mill City to his three sons — C. W. Stewart, William Stewart and Charles Stewart.

Members of the Friendship

circle of the Presbyterian church Sunday school and their families, held a covered dish supper in the church dining rooms Friday night. Rev. Noble Streeter showed slides following the dinner.

Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Todd and boys, Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sheythe and boys, Mrs. R. S. Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Heller and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Delos Hoeye and three children, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Tuers and boys.

Julia Bassett of Santiam Rebekah lodge No. 166 has received the appointment of color bearer to act at grand lodge of Oregon which convenes in Portland May 20-21. The appointment was made by the president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, Mrs. Olive Ramsey. Mrs. Bassett is a past noble grand of Mill City lodge and was recently recommended by the lodge to the office of district deputy president. Mrs. Bassett will attend grand lodge, also, as an official delegate representing the Santiam Rebekahs.
