

Mrs. Berg in Bridge Lead

Mrs. Elmer O. Berg took over leadership in the mid-week tournament, while Ray Ward is ahead in the Friday evening series of the Elks Duplicate Bridge club.

Close behind in the Wednesday competition at the women's club are Mrs. Arthur S. Binegar, Walter M. Cline, Mrs. Robert McKesson and Mrs. F. C. Lutz with only one of the eight tournaments remaining. Mrs. Leona Taylor is runner-up in the Friday series.

Winners this week in the six-table Howell movement at the women's club were Mrs. Elsie Day and Mrs. Paul F. Burris, while Mrs. Berg and Mrs. Binegar were next, Mrs. Donald Huff and Mrs. McKesson third, and Mrs. Lutz and Mrs. Rupert Park fourth. The Friday top spot went to Mrs. Georgina Theide and Arden L. Harrah of Corvallis with Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Walter A. Barsch next.

Nine trophies were brought back to Salem by some 55 Salem club members who went to the Seaside Sectional at Gearhart last week-end. Mrs. Walter Remmey of Brownsville won two, while one each went to Mrs. William F. Lieske, Mrs. Bert Osburn, Mrs. Robert McKesson, Mrs. Cecil Rhoades, Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Arthur L. Lewis and Charles Tambling.

Many other honors were taken by others attending the sectional, including Mrs. Walter A. Barach, Mrs. Paul F. Burris, Mrs. C. C. Gabriel, Mrs. L. P. Gottfried, Mrs. F. C. Lutz, Mrs. Harold Muhs, Mrs. F. T. Munger, Mrs. Stanley Neuens, Mrs. W. R. Newmyer, Mrs. Rupert Park, Mrs. Leona Taylor, Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. Myrtle Watson, Mrs. Harry Wiedmer, Mrs. Mona Yoder, Sidney Schechtman, Jack Nielsen, A. Ray Kemp, and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Boring, R. F. Baxter, Donald Duncan, Elmer O. Berg, Carroll Ford, L. W. Frasier, E. H. Jones, Lloyd Jones, W. E. Kinsey, W. F. Leary, Arthur L. Lewis, Max Moore of Scio, C. L. Newsom, John Pugh of Shedd and Ralph S. Dannen of Brownsville.

Master points will be held this Friday and next Friday, May 1, at the Elks club rooms, according to Co-chairman A. L. Lewis.

Former Mill City Man Electrocutted

Mill City—Word was received here Wednesday from Borger, Texas, of the death of Norman Lester Hathaway, 30-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hathaway of Mill City. Hathaway was electrocuted while at work in an oil refinery. One other workman was killed at the time and three injured in the accident.

Funeral services and burial are being held in Borger where one of their children died and was buried. Mr. Hathaway was born in Cuba, Mo., Nov. 5, 1913. He lived in Mill City about three years—1945-48 and was a member of the First Christian church in Mill City. The immediate family of the deceased left Wednesday night for Texas.

Surviving are his wife, Alvene and two daughters, Norma Sue 9, and Martha June, 6 months, of Borger, Tex.; two brothers, Glenn Hathaway, of Redding, Calif., and Clyde Hathaway, of Mill City; four sisters, Natalie Swift and Leola Hathaway of Redding, Calif., Vera Nelson of Klamath, Calif., Nellie Hathaway, of Grants Pass, Ore.
