Thirteen members and eight guests were present. Guests were Mrs. Jay Weber, Mrs. Archie Murphy, Mrs. William Stange, Mrs. Earl Allison, Mrs. Mabel Sporkalsky, Mrs. Edward DeHaan, Mrs. E. C. Peyton and Mrs. Leota Porter, all members of Home Rebekah lodge.

The next meeting will be May 28 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Engle, Sr., with Mrs. Herman Otjen as co-hostess.

Street Numbering Starts at Lebanon

Lebanon — A Chamber of Commerce committee planning numbering and re-naming of city streets has asked for a council member of their committee, since plans are moving ahead rapidly.

Mayor Fitzgerald named the three man street committee which includes Kenneth Fuller, Glen Gilenwater and Robert Heimerdinger.

The city council has acted on complaints of citizens living near the city dump who protested the lack of drainage in the area. No tile exists under the road leading from the highway into the grounds, causing water to back up.

The city informed the committee that the municipality will construct the culvert providing the county delivers the

New Building For Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel — The erection of a new building for Mount Angel Seminary was announced today by the Rt. Rev. Damian Jentes, O.S.B., Abbot of Mount Angel Abbey.

Construction work will begin in the near future, so that the new facilities will be ready for the beginning of the fall term in September, 1953.

The new building will alleviate present crowded conditions and take care of expected increases of enrollment. Mount Angel Seminary is the only school that prepares boys for the Diocesan priesthood in an area west of the Rocky mountains, south of the Washington border and north of San Francisco.

The expansion program is approved and supported by the Most Rev. Archbishop Edward D. Howard of Portland.

The new building is expected to provide classroom and residence facilities for minor seminarians, i.e. high school students and college students not yet in philosophy.

SPEECH CANCELLED
Woodburn — Rev. Harry A. Rhodes, who was scheduled to speak at the Woodburn and Bethel Presbyterian churches on Wednesday, April 29, has cancelled his appointments here because of illness.

A matter which was previously agreed upon.

Pay Indians for Fishing Rights

Portland (AP) — Revised agreements to pay two Indian tribes for loss of fishing rights were announced here Friday by the army engineers.

The Warm Springs tribe would get $4,047,800 and the Umatillas $4,198,000 for loss of the Celilo fishing site, which will be flooded by the Dalles dam, now under construction.

Col. Thomas Lipscomb, Portland district engineer, said the agreements had been approved by Maj. Gen. Samuel D. Sturgis, chief of the army engineers. They now must be ratified by Interior Secretary McKay and the 1,078 Warm Springs Indians and the 1,118 Umatillas.

Lipscomb said he had been advised the Yakima tribe did not want to negotiate an agreement at this time, hoping that congress would halt construction of the dam.

Welfare Budget $31,200,000

Portland (AP) — The State Welfare Commission Friday approved a budget of $31,200,000 for the fiscal year starting July 1. Last year's budget was 30 million dollars.

Nearly half the budget was allocated for welfare aid in Multnomah county.

Multnomah county was allocated 13½ million dollars for welfare aid, nearly half the total. Four other counties had allocations above one million dollars.

They include Marion, $1,800,000; Clackamas, $1,500,000; Lane, $1,300,000 and Jackson, $1,200,000.
