Carnation Days for

War Mothers Dated Carnation days sponsored by the American War Mothers, Chapter 1, Salem, have been proclaimed by Mayor Al Loucks for Friday, May 8, and Saturday, May 9, previous to Mothers' day. The early leaders of the American War Mothers chose the carnation as the official flower of the organization and conceived the idea of selling carnations preceding Mothers' day to the public. The carnations are made solely by veterans, the red symbolizing the living and the white the mother who has passed on. The proceeds of the sale go for the benefit and aid of veterans; Christmas cheer in hospitals for veterans, hospital equipment and entertain-ment and for furthering the growth of the local, state and national organization. Mrs. Glenn W. Prather, president of the chapter, is in charge of the carnation sale and has appointed Mrs. Martin Viesko, Mrs. Edna Randall, ported here Friday. Mrs. George Pro and Mrs. She told the Oregon AAUW Mrs. George Pro and Mrs. Edith Morley as a committee to help where necessary.
