

Business Meeting, Ball Game Scheduled for Salem Senators

Activity concerning the Salem Senators will take place on two fronts tonight — at the Labor temple and at Waters park.

Stockholders in Salem Senators, Inc., are to meet at the Labor temple at 7:30 to decide whether or not $25,000 additional stock should be sold by the organization.

Bruce Williams, president of the board of directors, explains that the $25,000 would be used primarily to pay off a debt owed to the Portland Beavers, from whom the Senators were purchased in 1951.

The business meeting will be hurried up as much as possible, in order to permit stockholders to get out to the ball park in time for the 8:15 game between Salem and Calgary.

The Senators and Stampeders were forced to take a day off Sunday when wet grounds made it impossible to play their scheduled doubleheader.

One of the games will be made up tonight. The other will be played later in the season.

Bob Collins, lanky left-hander who pitched three innings against Calgary Friday, holding them to no runs and one hit, will be on the mound for Salem tonight.

Bob Roberts will more than likely be named by manager Gene Lillard to pitch for Calgary.

The Edmonton Eskimos, like Calgary making their first appearance in the Western International league this season, come into Salem for a series beginning Tuesday night at 8:15.

The defending champion Victoria Tyeas, who led the Western International Baseball League from first to last in 1952, are off to a winning start again in 1953.

Going into the first full week of the new season, the Tyeas have three straight wins to their credit and are knotted in first place with Calgary, one of the WIL's two new Canadian members, and Lewiston.

The Tyeas' victims though were the Spokane Indians, the club they hexed in 1952. The Indians were right at Victoria's heels through most of last season. They're rated as a strong 1953 pennant contender.

Calgary and Lewiston lost bouts with the weatherman and were able to complete but two of four scheduled season-opening games.

Only Yakima and Wenatchee were able to keep the schedule as rain curtailed weekend activities throughout the league. They split a doubleheader Sunday, Yakima taking the opener 6-3 and Wenatchee the nightcap 2-1, to even the series at two wins apiece.

Doubleheaders between Calgary and Salem and Edmonton and Tri-City were rained out, and make-up games were scheduled Monday night. Edmonton and Tri-City will play a doubleheader at Tri-City and Calgary and Salem a single game at Salem. Spokane and Vancouver round out the evening's activities opening a three-game series at Vancouver.

Yakima's Lefty Hal Flinn and Wenatchee's Art Amaya traded five-hitters in the Sunday twin bill at Wenat-

Besslink Wins Tournament of Golf Champions

Las Vegas (AP)—Youthful Al Besslink, not too long out of the intercollegiate golf ranks, picked up the crown of "champion of champions" today and looked ahead to further conquests of veterans of the tournament.

Besslink, a towering 28-year-old blond slugger, won the $35,000 "Tournament of Champions" here yesterday as he came home in front of the star-studded field.

It was a long haul from his caddy days to the victory, which was worth approximately $25,000 to him.

"I still can't believe I won," he said after he calmly sank a curving, six-foot putt on the 18th green to clinch the title.

"It was a miracle finish, you just don't finish two under par on the last three holes to win that kind of money. It was just a miracle, that's all."

Phils Make it 8 Straight; Indians Move Into AL Lead

By CARL LUNDQUIST
New York (AP)—Steve O'Neill, who won a lot of games at Detroit with a "T.N.T." pitching punch, was using the same kind of formula today to put the Phillies on a runaway winning streak in the National League.

In the same way that Dizzy Trout, Hal Newhouser, and Virgil Trucks used to blast away at American League hitters, O'Neill has a new 1-2-3 pitching punch of Robin Roberts, Karl Drews, and Curt Simmons. They all are workhorses and O'Neill says he thinks he could get as many as 380 innings of work out of each of them—although Drews needs a little more rest than Roberts and Simmons, the strong-armed bonus boys.

The Phils made it eight in a row, their longest winning streak in five years, with 7-5 and 8-1 decisions from Pittsburgh yesterday as Roberts and Drews coasted to easy triumphs.

The Indians moved into first place in the American League with their 2-1 and 12-2 victories over Detroit, giving them a winning streak of five. Bob Feller won his first game this year and the 240th of his career.

The Yankees, who have been losing only once a week, dropped a 5-4 decision to Washington as Jim Busby mistreated their ace, Allie Reynolds. The Browns defeated Chi-

Beavers Complete Sweep Of Series with Sacramento

Portland (AP)—Portland snowed under Sacramento's Solons, 8-1, on a wet field yesterday in the opener of what was to have been a Pacific Coast league baseball doubleheader. The second game was called because of rain.

Little Jehosie Heard, backed by a 14-hit attack, hurled his third win of the season without a defeat for the Beavers.

The small southpaw gave up a run in the first inning on a pair of singles and a passed ball and an outfield fly, but he managed to shut out the Solons for the rest of the way.

Hank Artt pounded his third home run of the season and Aaron Robinson belted his fifth for the Beavers.

The lone Sacramento run came as Eddie Bockman singled, advanced on a passed ball and Neil Sheridan's single and came home on an outfield fly by Nippy Jones.

Portland broke the 1-1 tie in the fifth as Fletcher Robbe singled, Granny Walkstone doubled and Artt walked to fill the bases. A single by Don Egert, and a strike to Eddie Basinski scored the two.

The victory was the 10th for the Beavers in 11 starts against the Solons. Roger Osenbaugh's loss record was extended one to 1-2.

Portland opens at Hollywood Tuesday night with Glenn Elliott (1-1) slated for mound duty. Sacramento goes to Los Angeles and either Charlie Schantz (1-1) or Marino Parretti (2-2) will pitch Tuesday.

San Francisco (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels held a game and a half edge over Seattle in the Pacific Coast League race today as they moved into Sacramento for a series with the last place Solons.

Stan Hack's Seraphs could do no wrong yesterday as they took a double header from San Francisco, 8-1 and 4-0, and only allowed the Seals a total of five hits in two contests.

In other PCL games Seattle split with San Diego while Hollywood won a single tilt from Oakland. Rain forced postponement of the Stars-Oaks nightcap.

Several players were battling for "star of the weekend" honors as a result of yesterday's performances. Bill Padgett joined the ever-expanding "two hitter" club when he muzzled the Seals for

L.A. in the opener. The hitless Seals probably would feel a lot better if they could squeeze Hollywood's Ted Beard and Dale Long into their batting orders. At a nominal fee, of course.

Beard, who walloped four home runs in one game earlier this year, belted two more as the Stars were trampling Oakland 8 to 2. And Long socked a home run into the center field stands with the bases filled, a blow that carried well over 400 feet.

Bases loaded homers wrecked the Seals. Frank Di Prima unloaded one in the first game to put the skids under Tommy Heath's crew. Gene Baker followed suit with the bags packed in the first inning of the nightcap.

Murray Franklin hit a two-run single in the eighth inning of the opener to earn San Diego a 4-3 victory over Seattle. Fancy relief pitching by Art Del Duca sparked the Sucs to their 5-1 triumph in the nightcap.

Willamette Suffers First Loss in Northwest League

Willamette University suffered its first defeat in Northwest Conference baseball Saturday when it was beaten 4-2 by Linfield.

In other Saturday games, Whitman and Lewis and Clark divided a doubleheader—the Pioneers winning the opener 3-5 and Whitman the seven-inning nightcap, 6-3—and Pacific won both ends of a doubleheader with College of Idaho, 10-7 and 9-4.

Willamette gained its two runs in the second inning to tie the score. Linfield added one in both the fifth and sixth inning. The game was called after the seventh because of rain.

Lewis and Clark beat Whitman with a nine-run rally in the seventh inning, but Whitman led all the way in the second game.

Pacific scored six runs in the eighth inning of the opener at College of Idaho.
