Wedding in West Salem Saturday

West Salem Methodist church was the scene for a pretty wedding Saturday evening when Miss Sharon Lee Phillips, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Merle Phillips, was married to Donald William Richey, A. 3c, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Richey of Salem.

Spring flowers and candlelight decorated the church for the service. The Rev. Harold W. Black read the vows at 8 o'clock in the presence of some 100 relatives and friends. Mrs. Glen Wyatt was pianist and the Rev. Mr. Black sang before the service.

Lighting the candles were Miss Doris Phillips, in a coral net waltz length frock and Miss Jean Edwards in a lavender dress.

Mr. Phillips gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor length dress of ivory moire taffeta fashioned with scalloped sleeves and sweetheart neckline and with ivory velvet at the waistline. The fingertip veil was arranged from a pearl trimmed lace cap. For her flowers the bride carried gardenias and lilies of the valley on a white Rainbow Bible.

Miss Merlene Phillips was her sister's only attendant. She wore a bright red taffeta dress and her flowers were a nosegay of red tulips and lilies of the valley.

E. W. Richey, Jr., was best man for his cousin. Ushering were J. W. Rierison and Roy Phillips, cousins of the bride.

The reception following was in the church parlors. The bride's table was set with a satin damask cloth and silver and crystal appointments.

Mrs. Elmer Rierison and Mrs. E. A. Dickson, aunts of the bride, poured, and another aunt, Mrs. Merle D. Travis, cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Harry Phillips, aunt of the bride, Miss Reta Colburn, Miss Rosella Phillips, Mrs. Oscar Phillips, Mrs. William C. Lawrence, both aunts of the bride.

Among out-of-town guests were Mrs. Edwin Johnson of Tacoma, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Homer Phillips and Misses Rosella and Cara Jean Phillips of Montezano.

Panhellenic Plans Coffee

A coffee party for high school senior girls is to be given May 23 in Lausanne hall by the Salem City Panhellenic organization, the group making plans for the party at their monthly luncheon on Friday, at the Senator hotel. The affair is for all senior girls of the Willamette valley who will enter college in the fall.

New officers will be taking over in Panhellenic, the president to come from Gamma Phi Beta, the vice president from Sigma Kappa, the secretary from Zeta Tau Alpha, the treasurer from Kappa Alpha Theta.

Reporting for the recent Easter lily sale, Mrs. B. W. Stacey, chairman for the project from Panhellenic, said a sum of $512 was realized from the sale, the money to go to the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

LEAVING Monday for California were State Rep. and Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom, planning to be gone two weeks.

Wash., Mr. and Mrs. William C. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. P. Houseas of Portland.

Mr. Richey recently returned from a year in Korea and on May 6 will report at Fairchild air base, Wash., to complete his enlistment. The bride is employed at Ladd and Bush bank and will continue her work there while her husband is in the service.

Benson-Johnson Wedding In Colorful Setting at Church Sunday Evening

The First Presbyterian church was the scene for one of the spring's beautiful weddings Sunday evening when Miss Donna Ruth Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Johnson, was married to Steven Hughes Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson.

White lilies, yellow snapdragons and candlelight decorated the church for the service. Dr. Paul N. Poling officiated at the 8 o'clock ceremony. Miss Dolores Gottfried was the soloist, Mrs. Ralph H. Dobbs playing the organ. Lighting the candles preceding the service were Misses Joan and Joyce Travis, both wearing yellow nylon net frocks with tulips in their hair.

The attendants preceding the bride to the altar were colorfully gowned in green and yellow frocks. The dresses were made alike of nylon net, fashioned in strapless style with matching stoles.

Mrs. Robert Seamster was matron of honor. She was in green nylon net with matching picture hat on which were clusters of white lilies at the side. She carried a yellow satin basket filled with Fantasy tulips and dark lilies.

Miss Othelene Lee, Miss Carolyn Marshall, Miss Joy Lewis, Mrs. John Erickson were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were all of yellow nylon tulle, their picture hats also of yellow, and they carried green satin baskets with the tulips and lilies. All attendants wore rhinestone bracelets presented them by the bride.

Young Miss Susan McGee was junior attendant, wearing a green taffeta dress and carrying a green basket of yellow rose petals.

Michelle Sommer was the flower girl, wearing a white organdy frock and carrying a nosegay.

Richard Bayl was the ring bearer.

Lace and Tulle Dress

The bridal dress was of lace and tulle. It was fashioned with the bodice of Chantilly lace, in off-shoulder style and with long sleeves, the skirt and train of the nylon tulle over satin. The nylon illusion veil was arranged from a Juliet cap of the Chantilly lace. With the dress the bride wore a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a prayer book with white orchids and stephanotis on it. Mr. Johnson gave his daughter in marriage.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Whitney Benson. The ushers were Clarence Haugen, John Erickson, Richard Tandy and Arley Weaver.

The bridegroom's mother wore a pearl gray chiffon dress with bodice of nylon net and lace bolero, gray accessories and corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The bride's mother wore a champagne nylon lace and net dress with matching accessories and corsage of purple orchids. The reception following also was at the church. White lilies and candles decorated the room for the affair.

The lily theme was carried out in decorating for the wedding. The bride's table was set with a white cut velvet cloth and featured the wedding cake which was topped with white lilies. The coffee and punch table was set with a yellow embroidered cloth, candelabras and white lilies in the center. Miniature Czechoslovakian bridesmaids were arranged about the center setting. The French sterling loving cup used by the couple at the punch bowl was a gift from an aunt.

Mrs. C. Paige Benson and Mrs. Irene Connitt, both aunts of the bridegroom, and Mrs. George L. Johnson, sister-in-law of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Bjarne Erickson, Mrs. Gladys Lee and Mrs. Harold Wegner poured. Assisting were Miss Norma Herrington, Miss Colleen McNeil, Miss Roberta Sjoding, Miss Carolyn Parker, Miss Harriet Just, Miss Lois DuBrulle, Portland, Miss Wilma Willrich, Miss Gail Lockheed, Miss Helen Cadd, Miss Billie Miller, Miss Sharon Brown, Miss Marilyn Blakely.

For traveling the bride wore a gray-blue suit and hat, white accessories and an orchid. The couple took the plane from Portland for southern California. They will be at home in Salem.

HOME from two weeks in Arizona and California are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Scott. In Phoenix they were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Ronald S. Haines and family.
