

Miss Weissenfels Bride Saturday at Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel — At a nuptial high mass in St. Mary's Catholic church on Saturday morning, April 25, Miss Helen Weissenfels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weissenfels, was wed to Joseph Ehl, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ehl, Sr., of Salem.

The Rev. Clement Frank, O.S.B., officiated at the 9:30 o'clock double ring ceremony, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. Serving the mass were Joseph Eberle and Paul Foltz. The altars in the church were decorated with arrangements of lavender and white lilies with tall lighted tapers; large baskets of white Calla lilies and lilies decorating the sanctuary.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of Chantilly lace and nylon net over white slipper satin, designed with an Empire-style lace bodice and Queen Ann collar. There were tiny satin buttons down the back of the bodice, and also at the wrists of the long tapered lace sleeves. The bouffant skirt was fashioned with a front panel of Chantilly lace and a wide matching border of lace fell from the tightly fitted waistline and extended down the long court train. The net scoop hat was adorned with pleated lace and lilies of the valley, and held a double fingertip veil of French illusion. The bride wore a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and her bouquet was a cascade of lilies of the valley, centered with three orchids.

Sisters Attend
The bride's two sisters, Mrs. Joseph Bartosz, Salem, and Mrs. Russel Aman, Mt. Angel, were her attendants. They were identically gowned in bouffant floor length frocks of pale orchid net over taffeta with matching boleros. They wore headpieces of darker orchid net adorned with violets, and carried colonial bouquets of lavender daisies surrounded with lilies of the valley.

Best man was John Buchheit, Salem, and Russel Aman was groomsmen for his brother-in-law. Ushering the guests was Leonard Weissenfels, the bride's only brother.

The St. Mary's church choir, of which the bride is a member, sang the mass, and Miss Estelle Bauman and Miss Marilyn Schwab were soloists. Miss Helen Keber was the organist.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Weissenfels wore a navy blue dressmaker suit, accented by white and blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a dusty rose dress and her accessories were white and navy. Both mothers added corsages of pink carnations and Stephanotis.

Following the church ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the dining room of St. Mary's school. Covers were placed for the Rev. Clement Frank, O.S.B., the wedding party and members of the two immediate families. Assisting in serving were Miss Donna Diehl and Miss Leonora Platz. During the breakfast Miss Estelle Bauman and Miss Marilyn Schwab sang, accompanied by Miss Helen Keber.

For the afternoon reception, the rooms were decorated with baskets and arrangements of lilies and dogwood. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth and candelabras were placed at either end. The three-tiered wedding cake was surrounded by a ring of white and orchid blossoms. Presiding at the urn was Mrs. Edward Miller, West Linn, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Beverley Degler, Salem, niece of the bridegroom passed the guest book. The bride's aunt, Mrs. Theodore Torresdal, Portland, cut the cake, and at the gift table were Miss Lena Schindler, Chehalis, Wash., and Miss Leona Weissenfels, Aumsville, cousins of the bride. Assisting in serving were Miss Patty Seifer and Miss Marlene Seifer, also cousins of the bride, and Miss Marlene Diehl and Miss Marie Platz.

For her traveling ensemble, the bride donned an azure blue knit suit with a white wool topper, and her accessories were white and navy. She wore a corsage of orchids from her wedding bouquet.

After their return from a wedding trip, the newlyweds will live in Salem.
