Dallas

Dallas—Treated for cuts and abrasions at the Dallas General Hospital was Miss Zelma Janzen. Miss Janzen, while driving near Pedee, hit a soft shoulder on the highway which caused her automobile to turn over three times. Her leg was caught in the car which prevented her freeing herself.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mc-

Glaughlin are celebrating these days because their twin boys, born April 25, are the first twins to be born this year at the Dallas General hospital.

The McLaughlins have three other children—all boys. "Sunny of Sunnyside," an operetta presented by Morrison school pupils, played to capacity crowds on its Thursday matinee and Friday evening performances.

A poster contest was held in connection with the operetta so that it would be adequately advertised in downtown shops. Winners for this contest were: grand prize, Clara Lou Mardorf and Ardyth Pankratz; room 13, Karen Haas; room 12, Nancy Diehm; room 14, Virginia Braden; room 11, Beverly Maddy; room 10, tying for first place were Terry Baumgardner and Carl Fausett.

The gondolas of Venice must be black since other colors are not permitted.

ACORNS FROM THE

Oak Room

WITH DEL MILNE

"Del, you are sure missing the boat... you may be a cracked jack hotel operator but you have a lot to learn about telling the facts to the public. For instance, you mentioned in one of your columns that one could buy a prime rib sandwich in the Oak Room for $1.75 or a tenderloin steak sandwich for $2, and then you said no more about it. I and others like me that the heck with you, I'm not paying any two bucks for a sandwich. Last night I ordered one of your so called sandwiches and you have no business calling that dinner a sandwich in the first place but if you insist on calling them sandwiches for pity sakes tell the people they get about half a loaf of French bread, a big thick slice of prime rib, a huge baked potato with about an eighth of a pound of butter on it. All the coffee they can drink and old fashioned ice cream chocolate cones top it off with. Why hide your little under a bushel Bub?"
