Dallas — Installation of the newly elected officers for 1953-54 was the highlight of the last meeting of the high school PTA.

Installed as president for the coming year was Mrs. Ross Simpson. Mrs. Clinton Rulter was installed as secretary with Mr. Himes as treasurer. Mrs. Art Woods who was unable to attend the meeting will serve as vice-president.

Program included a panel of students and parents with Paul Davis and Mrs. E. E. Salisbury serving as moderators. The panel topic was the co-operation of parents and teachers with the problems of youth.

Students participating included Russell Wells, Harold Stevens, Shirley Goertzen, Mary Lou Chambers. Mrs. C. C. Long represented the parents in the discussion.

The program continued with numbers presented by the music department under the direction of George Thompson, music teacher. The boys quartet and the girls trio both offered selections with solo numbers by Mary Bell and Alvina Sullivan.

The host committee was composed of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dashiell, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gibbs, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Morrison.

CAP to Send Local Teacher to Colorado

Salem's Civil Air Patrol is planning to send some man or woman teacher to a "National Aviation Education Workshop" summer course to be held at the University of Colorado in Boulder from July 23 to August 25. Lt. Wilbur Garrett, commander of the local unit, said today. All expenses will be paid.

Course of instruction will cover basic facts on flight, aerial navigation, communications and control, national and international problems of safety and control, airports and vocational opportunities in aviation. It is designed to enable the teacher to impart aviation knowledge upon his or her return to the classroom here.

Selection of the teacher will be on a competitive basis among those who apply, with an examination on the basis of the Civil Air Patrol here by June 1. Manuals containing the information needed to pass the examination will be furnished the applicants for study.

State Board to Wait For Dental Decision

Portland (AP) — The State Board of Higher Education decided Tuesday to wait for next month's Legislative Emergency Board meeting before making any plans for a new dental school.

The question is whether about $300,000, expected from sale of the old building, can be used for the new school or is to be deducted from the $2,200,000 fund voted by the Legislature.

The Joint Ways and Means Committee told the board the sale money could not be used to equip the new school. The board had planned to use it for equipment.
