Solons Face Edmonton; SHS Meets Corvallis at 6

Salem and Edmonton, rained out of their Western International league game at Waters park last night, will try again tonight at 8:15.

Jack Hemphill, who was scheduled to have pitched for Salem last night, will do the hurling for the Senators tonight. He will likely be opposed by Edmonton hurler Larry Manier, a righthander.

Baseball fans will be treated to a double feature tonight. In addition to the Salem-Edmonton contest, there will be a Salem-Corvallis high school game at 6 o'clock.

The Salem high Vikings have won 10 straight games. They were scheduled to have played Corvallis Tuesday, but that game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

A single admission ticket will entitle a fan to attend both the high school and Senator ball games tonight.

The Lewiston Broncos made it four-in-a-row in Western International League play Wednesday night.

The undefeated front-runners shelled the Wenatchee Chiefs 10-3 in one of the two games that went nine full innings. Tri-City edged Calgary 8-7 in the other and Vancouver downed Spokane 9-3 in a game called after seven innings because of rain.

Rain idled Victoria at Yakima. Victoria and Yakima scheduled a makeup doubleheader Thursday night.

Wenatchee outhit Lewiston 13-8 but the Broncos capitalized on Wenatchee errors and some shaky pitching for the second win of the series at Lewiston. A four-run spree put the Broncos out in front in the third inning. They added four more in the sixth, two on Clint Cameron's triple, and two unearned runs in the seventh.

Beavers Return Moniz to Vics

Hollywood (AP) — Bob Moniz, 25-year-old Portland Beaver outfielder, was returned to the Victoria, B.C., Western International League baseball team today as Portland Manager Clay Hopper made a required cut in his 22-man squad.

Moniz was purchased from Victoria this year, but it was not an outright buy. The Beavers will keep a 24-hour notice option on the 5-foot-9 slugger.

Hopper was required to make the cut to conform to a Pacific Coast League 21-player limit. Choice of Moniz came only six hours ahead of the deadline.

Bearcat Track Team Travels To Walla Walla

Winners of four straight dual meets this season, Ted Ogdahl's Willamette cinder squad ventures for a contest with the Whitman Missionaries.

Off their record to date, the Bearcats appear to be one of the outfits to beat in the conference meet, set for later in May.

Chief Willamette threats at Walla Walla will be Bill Van Horn in the hurdles, Dean Benson and Larry Standifer in the hurdles, Layton Gilson in the discus, Stan Neperud in the javelin, Jim Hitchman in the shotput and high jump and Ralph Stephenson in the distance events.

Bearcats Meet Lewis and Clark In Two Games

Coach John Lewis' Willamette Bearcats, rained out of a scheduled game with Portland State Tuesday, resume Northwest Conference action this week-end in a pair of games with the Lewis and Clark Pioneers.

The Bearcats currently boast three wins and one setback in conference play, having knocked off Pacific twice and split with Linfield.

Lewis probably will throw his ace righthander, Andy George, at Lewis and Clark in the first game of the series, which is set for Portland Friday. The two teams collide again at McCulloch Field Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

The likely Willamette hill nominee for the Saturday clash will be Mickey Coen, also a righthander.

Ted Beard Won't Play If Elliott Pitches for Bevos

San Francisco (AP) — Manager Bobby Bragan of Hollywood is so anxious for slugger Ted Beard to break the PCL mark for consecutive hits that he won't let him play tonight—if Portland starts south-paw pitcher Glenn Elliott.

The twist is that Beard also is a left-hander, and his chances of collecting a hit the first time up against the Bevo chucker would be considerably diminished. So Torrid Teddy, burning along at 12 for 12, may have to wait until Friday before going after Mickey Beard's 23-year-old record.

The Rains Came

Bragan announced his decision after last night's game between Portland and the Twinks was rained out. The same thing happened to the Hollywood-San Diego and Los Angeles-Sacramento contests.

Suds into a first place tie with the Angels.

Davis Melton, the Seal shortstop who occasionally quaffs a pre-game prescription to get the butter' out of his stomach, committed the much-feared boot that sent Seattle on its way.

Butterflies Got Him

With the score knotted 4-4 in the eighth, Ray Orteig smacked a hopper toward young Davis, who fumbled the ball. Orteig was safe easily. Then Arlie Wilson lashed a tremendous triple out to the right centerfield flagpole to ram across what proved to be the winning run.

Just to be sure, the Rainiers tacked on two more in the ninth anyway. Art Del Duca, who rescued Bill Evans in the seventh, got the victory. Bob Muncie, who came on in the eighth for the Seals got the loss—his fourth. The veteran relief ace is winless.

Improvement of Other Cars Forced Sutton to Rebuild

The car which Len Sutton, 1852 Northwest roadster racing champion, will drive in Saturday's hot rod races at Hollywood Bowl, has been completely rebuilt since last season.

Racing fans may wonder why Sutton decided to rebuild his bug. After all, it did burn up every track in the Northwest last season. Why tamper with it?

Sutton rebuilt his rod simply because several other cars to run in the circuit this season are reportedly much hotter than the mount driven by Sutton last year.

Take, for instance, the brand new car built by Don Waters, whose famous '73 car won everything it entered a few years ago. Waters, who lives in Salem, is expected to enter something which won't finish far behind the winner in any race.

Davey Defeats Sammy Giuliani

Detroit (AP) — With a technical knockout triumph over a rough young middleweight southpaw Chuck Davey began fitting together today the pieces of the boxing career that Kid Gavilan nearly wrecked.

The college educated boxing master returned to the ring wars last night for the first time since Gavilan thrashed him in a welterweight title fight on Feb. 11.

And Davey, realizing he "could not afford" to lose this one if he was to recapture any of his gate appeal, made good. Dancing and jabbing in his old style, and ignoring an eye cut that gushed for seven rounds, Davey pounded out a TKO victory over Sammy Giuliani at the 38-second mark of the 10th round when Giuliani no longer could defend himself.

Davey, who tipped the scales at 151 pounds spotted his Stamford, Conn., rival seven pounds but he was the master all the way. His only worry was Dr. Joseph Cahalan, the state boxing commission physician who examined the cut after each succeeding round.

"It was a good victory and a fight I had to win," Dewey said. "You can't afford to lose after you've been beaten in a title fight."
