

Spectacular Pie They Call This

A spectacular pie—both in flavor and appearance! The brown crust contrasts deliciously with the snowy white rice filling which is studded with bits of fruit—golden peaches, plump seedless grapes, cubes of pineapple and ruby red cherries.

This rice pie is really "easy as pie" to make. The graham cracker crust goes together in a few minutes. The rice filling is ready in short order and a Rice and Fruit Pie which may be kept in the refrigerator until serving time is ready and waiting to receive a big round of applause.

Spectacular Pie
Ingredients:
 12 graham crackers, finely crushed (1 cup)
 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
 16 marshmallows
 1/2 cup milk
 2 cups cooked rice
 1 No. 2 1/2 can fruit cocktail (1 1/2 cups)
Method:
 Mix together the graham cracker crumbs and melted butter or margarine. Pack into the bottom and around the sides of a greased deep 9" pie pan. Bake at 350 deg. F. for 8 to 10 minutes. Cool.
 Over a low heat, cook marshmallows, milk and rice, until the marshmallows are melted and the milk has been absorbed. Stir frequently. Cool. Fold in the fruit cocktail.
 Pour into the graham cracker crust and chill covered. This pie may be kept in the refrigerator overnight. If desired, whipped cream may be served with the pie.
 This recipe makes 6 servings.

For Appetizer
 Canned cling peach slices make an inspirational appetizer. Take equal portions of the syrup from the canned fruit, pineapple and lemon juice and freeze until mushy. Serve over the chilled fruit. Decorate with a maraschino cherry or a sprig of mint.

A Bean Meal
 Dry lima beans know no season, for they come in handy at all times of the year. On cool spring evenings we like to serve baked lima beans as the one hot dish and accompany the excellent entree with thin slices of cold ham, sliced tomatoes and a frozen dessert.
