

For Porch Snack

"Ripe Olives on a Bun" are one of our favorite porch snacks. Split a frankfurter or hamburger roll in half. Cover with good-sized wedges of ripe olives which have been cut from the pits, top with a generous layer of mayonnaise mixed with chopped onion and curry. Place under broiler and broil until bubbly.

+ Tips for the Kitchen +

Do you have a springtime pot of chives on your kitchen shelf? Use the minced chives as a savory seasoning for mashed potatoes. Add them to cream cheese softened with mayonnaise for a cracker or sandwich spread. Sprinkle them over bowls of tomato soup. Add them to hot cooked buttermilk rice and serve with meat or fish.

Any extra cake frosting? Let the small fry spread it on graham crackers.

When re-using oil for deep frying, add a small amount of fresh oil to replace that used in previous frying. To clarify oil after frying, just add two or three quartered peeled raw potatoes to the oil and heat gradually; fry the potatoes until well browned, then cool the oil, strain it and store in the refrigerator until needed.

Plate Luncheon

Plate luncheons for "just family" are step-saving for mother. Here's one that gets top billing: canned fruit cocktail in lettuce cups, sieved avocado spread on toast, cheese sticks and raisen cookies. Everything may be put on one plate and eaten in any part of the house.

If your fabric lamp shade is washable, you can clean it by plunging it into a deep tubful of warm suds; repeat in clean suds if necessary. Use a soft brush or a sudsy sponge on spots. Rinse immediately in clean water or use a spray. Wipe with a turkish towel and dry in a current of air or near an electric fan. The secret of washing a shade successfully this way is to work quickly.

After you turn out a meat loaf, frost it with mashed potatoes and place under the broiler until the potatoes are flecked a golden brown.

Try this for a television snack when company's viewing: Rub a bowl with a cut clove of garlic, then mash an avocado in the bowl. Mix in a little finely chopped onion, mayonnaise and salt. You may also cut-up a fresh tomato that has been skinned and seeded. Serve potato chips and let guests dip them into the avocado mixture.

If you are watching your weight and feel the need of a mid-morning or mid-afternoon snack, take a glass of fruit juice or milk.

Now that fresh strawberries are coming in, try combining them with canned apple slices as a super-duper topping for breakfast cereal.

Want quick curry sauce for shrimp? Simply add curry powder to condensed canned celery soup, dilute with a little bouillon, and heat.
