

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

Camp Fire Ceremony On Saturday

Camp Fire Girls of the Salem district of Willamette Area council will receive their awards for the year's progress, Saturday evening, May 2, when 700 girls gather at Leslie Junior high school gymnasium for their annual Grand Council Fire. Sixty groups will be represented, receiving awards in trailseeker, wood gatherer, firemaker, and torch craftsman rank.

The highest award in Camp Fire, the torch bearer craftsman in social leadership, will be conferred upon Janice Button. Also earning high awards will be Laura Kolisky and Jean Haworth, with torch bearer craftsman in home-making, and Constance Barber, with torch bearer craftsman in nature lore.

The girls who have earned firemaker rank will light the candles signifying the eight points of the Camp Fire law. The program to follow will be on conservation, which is the national birthday project this year. The committee arranging the Grand Council Fire this year is Mrs. Frank Kolisky, chairman, Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. Lawrence Kosack, Mrs. E. A. Carlston, Mrs. John Ritchie, and Miss Mary McLaughlin.

The program is—
Wobole Call.....Lana Olson, Roy Scout Troop 19
Entrance of Fire
Professional of Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls
Flag Salute.....Led by guardian of the fire, Mrs. Walter Salonen
Sons.....God Bless America
Candle Lighting Ceremony
Miss Bird Fly-Up ceremony.....Mrs. E. A. Carlston, Community Chest board
National Membership Honors.....Mrs. Fernon Wineson, President-elect of Zionia club
Recognition of Rank.....Mrs. Thomas Churchill, American Association of University Women, president, Salem branch
Torch Bearer Awards.....Mrs. Charles Faded, Marine County Camp Fire District council
Craftsman in home-making.....Jean Hawthorn
Craftsman in home-making.....Laurie Kolisky
Craftsman in nature lore.....Constance Barber
Social leadership.....Janice Button
Extinguishing ceremony
Fantomina....."The Story of the Trees" (Reader Kay Roberts) (Sons "Trees" by Gordon's Honor Group)
Sons....."The Story of the Beautiful Conservation Pledge"
Recessional.....Sing Your Way Home
The picnic is invited. Wobole call will be at 7:30 p.m.

MISS JEANNE HOFFMAN leaves tomorrow for Berkeley, Calif., following a week's vacation which she has spent here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hoffman. Miss Hoffman is studying for her master's degree in social welfare at University of California.

Birthday Event

Celebrating her ninth birthday on Saturday will be Miss Alix Adair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Adair. A group of her friends have been invited to a May day party at her home at 2 o'clock that afternoon.

Attending the party will be Misses Julie Price, Sandra Olson, Twila Johnson, Marilyn Luther, Laura deWeese, Diane Hulbert, Rebecca Blair, Nancy Reynolds, Nancy Nordyke, Barbara Reynolds, Judie Crowder, Barbara Mickenham and Joyce Godsey.

Relatives Visit

Woodburn — All the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy except one son, Jack, were home for the wedding of Edward Murphy and Miss Edna Hermanson. Visitors in the Murphy home were their daughters, Mrs. A. J. Muldoon and daughter, Faith Ann, of Marsing, Idaho; Mrs. John Loutens and two children, Jackie and Melanie of Home-dale, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lamping and children, Mary Ellen, Billie and Elizabeth Ann, of Alderwood Manor, Wa., a son, Joseph Murphy, Mrs. Murphy and Susie of Salem, an uncle, George Mann, Sr., George Mann, Jr., and family, Miss Norma Moon and Jim Young, all of Portland. This was the first family reunion in several years.

A haunting new novel by

VINA DELMAR

Her name was Brandy. She looked like an angel, but the devil was in her laugh. Men traveled miles just to be near her, just to watch her, just to hear her. To some she brought destruction. To others a strange salvation. Here's a daring, vibrant Civil War tale by one of the most provocative authors of our time. Start reading The Leaping Steeper in the new May issue of the Ladies Home Journal today!

Mrs. McKay Feted At Luncheon Today

Mrs. Douglas McKay of Salem, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, was one of the honor guests at a luncheon given Friday in Washington, D. C. by the District of Columbia Mother's committee. The affair honored the Mother of the Year for District of Columbia, Mrs. McKay sharing the honors.

Mrs. McKay was issued an honorary citation by the Oregon Mother's committee, the citation signed by Governor Paul L. Patterson and sent to Mrs. William B. Chandlee of Hillsboro, chairman of the Oregon Mother's committee. Mrs. Louis H. Renfrow, Washington, D. C., received the citation from Mrs. Chandlee to present Mrs. McKay.

The luncheon was given at the Kennedy Warren in Washington, and several of Mrs. McKay's friends in the national capital were invited to attend the affair in her honor.

Golfers Set Portland Trip

About 25 women will be going to Portland next Wednesday for the Oregon Women's Golf association event at Alderwood club.

Among those going from here will be Mrs. Frank Fisk, Mrs. Fred Bernardi, Mrs. R. W. Kanz, Mrs. Glen Wilbur, Mrs. Kenneth Potts, Mrs. Charles Mueser, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Fred Anusson, Mrs. Richard Chase, Mrs. Orval Lams, Mrs. Thomas Hill, Jr., Mrs. T. W. Lowry, Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. John R. Wood, Mrs. Bruce Williams, Mrs. Eugene Kokko, Mrs. Leon Perry, Mrs. Myrtle Watson, Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Mrs. Chester A. Lee, Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Howard Eismann, Mrs. Robert Cannon.

Awards Given at Garden Club Event

Mt. Angel — Mrs. Paul Sliffe, president of the Mt. Angel Garden club, Mrs. George Schmidt and Miss Juliana Dehler received awards for their primroses which were entered in the Portland Primrose show Saturday.

Mrs. Sliffe took two first awards for a lavender and a purple auricula. Mrs. Schmidt won a third award for a red auricula, and Miss Dehler received a first place for a species of wild primroses.

Mrs. Roy Palmer, chairman of the Mt. Angel Primrose show, and Miss Juliana Dehler served as clerks for the judges. Later they were guests of Mrs. Carroll Higgins for a tour of the gardens of Dr. M. C. Riddle, Mrs. John Karnopp and Mrs. J. H. Boyd. Mrs. Higgins and Mrs. Karnopp were judges at the Mt. Angel show.

ON SUNDAY, Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Gatke are entertaining at their home at an informal open house, inviting friends to view their rhododendrons now in full bloom. Guests are invited to call between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Herbert Satchwell of Shedd, mother of Mrs. Gatke, and Miss Olive M. Dahl will pour at the tea and assisting will be Miss Lois Lattimer, Miss Leila Johnson, Mrs. Richard Gatke, Miss Marion Morange, Miss Gale Currey, Mrs. Phillip Meriam.

ARRIVING here today for a two week visit are Mrs. Sadie DiFilippi and Mr. and Mrs. Peter DiFilippi of Brooklyn, New York. They are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe DiFilippi, who are son and daughter-in-law of Mrs. DiFilippi and brother and sister-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Peter DiFilippi.

Don't Try to Be Happy with a Sour Stomach

There's just no use trying to have fun when you've got a sour stomach. Do as millions do. Always carry Tums. Just eat 1 or 2 delicious Tums after meals or whenever distress occurs. And presto! Tums neutralizes excess acid. Contains no baking soda to over-alkalize or cause acid rebound. Always keep one or two in your pocket for top-speed relief of acid indigestion. See how much more fun you have when you can eat favorite foods without having to "pay up." Get a roll today!

Snow-Smith Wedding Is Recent Event

On April 16, the Highland Friends church was the scene of a beautiful wedding when Miss Marynet Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Smith, was wed to Jack B. Snow of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil B. Snow. The double ring ceremony was read by George E. Smith, Jr., of Meadows, Idaho, who is a brother of the bride.

Four candelabrum decorated the church and were flanked by big bouquets of snapdragons which carried out the wedding colors of green, yellow and orchid. The pews were marked with large double camellias and white satin streamers. The organ music was played by a cousin of the bridegroom, Mrs. Bertram Frazier of Portland. Vocalists were Mrs. Elver Voth of Portland, sister of the bridegroom, and Klans Robison of Maitou Springs, Colo. Miss Barbara Terrill played the violin.

Candle lighters were Melba and Myrtle Chandler of Sprague River, who wore identical frocks of yellow taffeta with net overskirts and orchid carnation rosettes on their wrists.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a slipper satin dress with lace overskirt, and illusion finger tip veil fastened to a coronation head piece of pearl blossoms. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls given to her by the bridegroom, and an heirloom gold bracelet worn first by her great-grandmother. Her bouquet was a basket of snapdragon points centered with a rubrum lily and sprays of lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor was Miss Sarah Jane Smith, sister of the bride. She wore a light green taffeta frock with overskirt of green net and a coronation head band of net. She carried a basket of snapdragon points with orchid streamers.

Miss Arieta Wright was the bridesmaid. She wore a dress in orchid taffeta and net styled like the honor maid's with a coronation head band and basket with yellow streamers.

Peter Snow of Portland was best man for his brother, and Bertram Frazier, also of Portland, was the other attendant.

Advertisement for Miller's Fur Storage. Includes text: "Mills' FRIGID FUR STORAGE", "Cleaning", "Repairing", "Restyling", "FURS ARE COLD, DRY & SAFE AT Miller's", "Block's 176 N. Liberty St. Open Friday 7-9".

Writers Feted at Banquet

Several from Salem were in Portland last evening for the fifth annual Matrix Table banquet of Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary, the party being at the Multnomah hotel.

Margaret Hickey, editor of the public affairs department of the Ladies Home Journal, was the honored speaker. Her topic was "At Home in the World Today." She told the group there is need for human relations-sympathy and good will, and pointed out if we could match our interest and ability in money making and development of resources with the sense of leadership in human relations many of the problems of the nation and the world would be solved. Women may have a special responsibility in that field of human relations, she said.

The banquet honored the five "women of achievement" for the year in Oregon, including Ethel Romig Fuller, Portland, poetry; Freda Goodrich Mowrey, Portland, club editor of the Oregonian, representing journalism; Miss Maude Kerns, Eugene, representing field of art; Miss Joan Patterson, Corvallis, for her work in development of Oregon textile industry; Capt. Elizabeth Moorad, Portland, for her work in police protection in the Women's Protective division of the Portland police department.

Five new associate members were announced for the group, the list including Miss Margaret Magee of the Capital Journal staff and State Rep. Maurine Neuberger (Mrs. Richard L. Neuberger), free lance writer.

The Edith Knight Hill memorial award, given each year to some one for outstanding achievement in the state, this year was awarded to Stewart Holbrook, noted Oregon writer. Mr. Holbrook's humorous acceptance of the award was one of the highlights of the evening. He said he was overcome at being honored at something, but said he really had worked and had "achieved" some things—one, he had been responsible for keeping a lot of people out of Oregon, although thousands did turn traitor after his advice and poured into the state; secondly, he felt he had achieved when the daylight saving system was killed for Oregon this year; thirdly, that he had partially succeeded in his aversion to television by keeping it out of Oregon for at least three years. The award is a memorial to Mrs. Hill, who was "Marian Miller" of the Oregonian. Attending the banquet from Salem were Oregon's first lady, Mrs. Paul L. Patterson; Mrs. Robert Y. Thornton; Mrs. M. Theodore Madsen, Jr.; Miss Vinita Howard; Mrs. Thomas Brubeck; Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr.; Miss Margaret Magee; Miss Maxine Buren, Mrs. Wheeler English, Miss Nancy Stuart.

Table decorations for the dinner enjoyed by members of Salem post, American Legion, and its auxiliary on Thursday featured miniature may poles and colored balloons beside bouquets of tulips.

Games were played by the group and piano selections were presented by Miss Toni DeSart.

HOSTESS to her bridge club last evening was Mrs. Douglas Chambers. Mrs. P. J. Blake was an additional guest.

AL Unit

Table decorations for the dinner enjoyed by members of Salem post, American Legion, and its auxiliary on Thursday featured miniature may poles and colored balloons beside bouquets of tulips. Games were played by the group and piano selections were presented by Miss Toni DeSart. HOSTESS to her bridge club last evening was Mrs. Douglas Chambers. Mrs. P. J. Blake was an additional guest.

THE SMART SHOP FOR VANITY FAIR LINGERIE 115 N. Liberty

University of Oregon, Eugene, (Special) — Prettiest flower in the May basket is Joan Marie Miller, above, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vern W. Miller, 1825 Fairmount Ave., Salem. Joan Marie, with Tom Shepherd of Portland, at right, is co-chairman of Junior Week-end on the University of Oregon campus, May 8-10. Joan Marie in the basket is a sample of the decorations to be expected at the traditional Junior Prom, when the theme will be May Day.

Dance Club Sets Meeting Tuesday

Salem Heights—Belles and Beaus Square Dance club will meet on Tuesday, May 6, at 8 p.m. at the Salem Heights Community hall. The group will review 1808 dances, candlelight and the fascination tango. On the refreshment committee are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hawkins.

Son Is Born

From Portland comes news of the birth of a son, James Joseph, on Tuesday, April 28, to Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sullivan (Frances Anne Mott), at Emanuel hospital. The little boy is the fourth child in the family, the older children being Frances Arne, Candice and John L. Jr. The grandmother is Mrs. James W. Mott.

James R. Phillips went to San Francisco to meet him. In welcome to the Schnells, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Shinn and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Johnson are to entertain Saturday evening at the Shinn home.

ARRIVING in Salem Friday were Lt. and Mrs. Roger M. Schnell. Lt. Schnell has been released from active navy duty after two years service and recently returned from Japan. Mrs. Schnell and Mr. and Mrs.

Linoleum NATIONAL BRANDS CAPITAL FLOOR COVERINGS 217 S. High Ph. 44751

SAFEWAY LAST-MINUTE SPECIALS EFFECTIVE MAY 1, 2 AND 3. Margarine Blue Bonnet or Sunnybank 4 lbs. $1.00 Dalewood 5 lbs. $1.00. Tomato Soup Campbell's 3 cans 29¢. Dry Milk Starlac 1-lb. 35¢ Lac Mix 1-lb. 32¢. Tomato Juice Libby's or Sunnysdown 5 46-oz. $1.00 cans. Preserves STRAWBERRY Empress or Alice Love 20-oz. Jar 39¢. Syrup Lumberjack or Pack Train 24-oz. 29¢. Pancake Flour Sperry's 4 -lb. pkg. 49¢. Scott's Tissue 10 rolls $1.00. Mayonnaise Best Foods Quart 59¢ Nu Made Quart 57¢. Swanson's Frying Chicken Wings Ready for your pan 3 1-lb. Pkgs. $1.00. NEW POTATOES White Rose 6 lbs. 25¢. SAFEWAY 2120 Fairgrounds Rd. 245 Court St. 935 S. Commercial 1265 Center St.

Block's VALUE SENSATION! "Playmates" Only 1.99. 30 STYLES TO CHOOSE FROM! Frosted White, Fire Red, Flight Blue, Harmony Beige, Multicolors. Sizes 3 to 9. Block's 176 N. Liberty St. Open Friday 7-9.