

Just Can't Seem to Reach .500

By CHRIS KOWITZ, JR.
The Salem Senators paraded five pitchers to the mound in an attempt to stop Wenatchee in the second half of a twin bill at Waters park Sunday, but the Chiefs, who used three pitchers, outlasted the Senators to win 10-8 in eight innings. The game was scheduled for seven frames.

Salem thus kicked its chances to pull up to the .500 mark in Western International league play. The Senators came within one game of .500 by winning yesterday's opener, 1-0, behind the brilliant pitching of Bob Collins.

Collins, the only Salem pitcher who has won a game this year, racked up his second win of the young season with a nifty six-hitter. He kept Wenatchee's hits well scattered. The Chiefs never got more than one hit in an inning, and nobody on the Wenatchee team got more than one hit.

Wenatchee failed to get a man beyond second base until the ninth inning, when the Chiefs, aided by a couple of walks, filled the bases with two out.

Jack Hemphill came in to relieve Collins at that point, Hemphill only pitched to one batter. But that was enough. Chuck Malmberg popped up to catcher Bob Nelson to end the game and give Salem its 1-0 win.

The Salem run came in the seventh inning when Nelson walked, was sacrificed to and scored by Ray Stratton, and scored on Dick Sabatini's single.

The second game was a scorekeeper's nightmare in which Salem used 15 players and Wenatchee 12.

Bill Bevens started pitching for Salem. He worked five frames, then was followed by, in order, Larry Borst, Hemphill, Dick Strombach and Collins.

Strombach, who went in with one out in the seventh and stayed until there was one out in the eighth, was nicked for the loss. Wenatchee's two winning runs in the eighth were scored on Babe Fuhrman's hit off Collins, but the men who scored were left on base by Strombach when Collins entered the game, so Strombach was charged with the defeat.

The seventh inning provided the most thrills in the nightcap. Salem held a 5-4 lead when the seventh inning opened. Wenatchee scored four runs in the top of the seventh to go out front 8-5, then Salem scored three in the bottom of the seventh to tie the score at 8-8. The first two Salem batters in the seventh failed to reach base. All of the action came after two out.

Salem outpitched Wenatchee in the nightcap, 12-8. Three of the Senators' hits were by Don Taylor, who had gone hitless in five previous games.

The Senators hit the trail for Victoria last night, and are scheduled to play in the Canadian city tonight. Bill Nelson, rookie outfielder who graduated from Salem high school last spring, was left behind. He was released by the club because he is to be called into the armed forces soon.

One win streak was ended but another was in the making Monday as the Western International Baseball League turned into the second week of the 1953 campaign.

The Lewiston Bronco, undefeated in their first eight starts, tripped the ninth time out and fell 4-2 before the Edmonton Eskimos in the second game of a doubleheader at Lewiston Sunday night. The Bronco won the opener 3-1.

Spokane's Indians, meanwhile, made it four straight with a twin killing at Spokane, shading the Calgary Stampeders 3-1 and 7-6.

In other games Sunday, Vancouver clipped Yakima 9-3 and 7-6; Victoria whipped Tri-City 7-5 and 10-8.

Two bases-empty home runs by Clint Cameron gave Lewiston the edge in Sunday's opener at Lewiston. The Bronco continued their heavy-hitting in the nightcap but the Eskimos cashed in on a wild throw to hand the home team its first setback.

The Eskimos scored twice in the third inning on a single and triple and added two more runs, both unearned, when catcher Dick Neil, with the bases loaded, overshot first base and threw into right field while trying a pickoff play.

Spokane's John Cordell tamed Calgary with five well-spaced hits in the opener at Spokane, while his teammates touched Bill Stites for eight,

Surprise Pittsburgh Team Racks Up Fifth Straight

By CARL LUNDQUIST
New York (AP)—Long John Lindell, who went 11 long years between pitching victories in the majors, was hoping today that his "knack with the knuck" would keep him from waiting that long for the next one, even with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

In fact, the Pirates might even be an asset, the way they're going right now. For yesterday, as the 36-year-old Lindell turned in a four-hit, 8
