

Portland Suffers Twin Loss to Hollywood Stars

Hollywood (AP) — George O'Donnell hurled a brilliant one-hit shutout to give the Hollywood Stars a 1 to 0 second game victory over Portland after the Stars won the 11-inning opener 7 to 6 before 5,629 fans.

O'Donnell scored his sixth straight win of the season and third shutout as Dino Restelli's single to center with two out in the third deprived him of a no-hitter in the seven-inning second game.

In the first game, Lee Walls' single in the 11th scored Joe Muir from second with the winning run.

Hollywood got the lone marker of the second game in the third inning. Tom Saffell beat out an infield hit, Walls singled and Ted Beard walked to load the bases. Saffell scored when Dale Long lifted an out-field fly.

The twin win gave the blazing Stars the series, six games to one.

The first game winning run was scored after two were out. Muir, who relieved starter Mel Queen in the fourth inning to get credit for his second win, and Tom Saffell singled. Walls then drilled a ball into center field to score Muir.

Granny Gladstone shot Portland off to a three-run inning lead when he homered over the left field fence with two men on. Hollywood got three back in the second inning on a walk to Chuck Stevens, Gladstone's error and singles by Dale Long, Clem Koschorek and Manager Bobby Bragan.

Portland rapped Queen for three runs in the fourth, however. Walls' error paved the way for the unearned tallies. Don Eggert was safe on the miscue and scored on Jim Gadd's double. Red Adams and Frankie Austin walked to load the bases and Jim Russell singled in two runs.

San Francisco (AP) — Well looks here! Lefty O'Doul's pore I'll San Diego Padres have rocketed from the basement to fifth place in the Pacific Coast League standings after sweeping the Oakland Oaks under the rug twice in Sunday's double header.

And it was a day of double header debacles around most of the open circuit, with the exception of the Los Angeles-Sacramento tangle which saw each club win a game. And even there, the Seraphs wound up losing the series, 4-3, and skidded to a game and a half behind first place Seattle.

The Suds doused the San Francisco Seals twice, 10-6 and 10-1. But things were really rough in San Diego where Oakland rated a team to watch in pre-season dope sheets, got conked 7-1, and 6-1.

Second Best
The Seals not only lost a twin bill to Seattle but also came out second best as debaters. Manager Tommy Heath was thumbed out of the first game in the fifth inning by first base umpire Gordon Ford.

Later he was joined by catcher Will Tiesiera and first baseman George Vico, who stirred the ire of plate pundit Joe Lacovetti. Walt Judnich hit a three run homer to help squash San Francisco in that opener.

In the second affair, Seattle scored six times in a horrendous sixth inning that saw all of the runs go down as unearned. With two out, third baseman Sal Taormina bobbled a grounder and the bags were packed. Jackie Tobin was given first on interference by catcher Nino Tornay to squeeze in one run. Old reliable Muncief then came in to rescue Bill Bradford, gave up a walk and then a three run double to Clarence Maddern, who stroked in five of the Seattle tallies. That knocked 'em into the aisles — homework bound.

Rappin' Robert
Wrathful Robert Dillinger, who was horse-collared by the Angels' Joe Hatten in the opener while trying to hit safely in his 18th straight game, smacked in all three of Sacramento's tallies to give the Solons a 3-1 verdict in the finale. L. A. won the first contest as Lefty Joe spun a three hitter. Two of the Seraph tallies were set up when Lennie Attyd kicked two grounders in a row at second.

This week Seattle is at Portland, Los Angeles at Oakland, Sacramento at San Diego and San Francisco at Hollywood. The Rainiers-Bevos and Sacs-Padres series open tonight.

Oregon State, Oregon Track Teams Both Lose

(By The Associated Press)
Washington State and Washington shaped up Monday as the teams to beat in the Pacific Coast Conference Northern Division track championship chase on the basis of lopsided dual meet wins Saturday.

With George Widenfelt and Denny Meyer paving the way, the Huskies of Washington rolled over Oregon State's out-gunned Beavers at Corvallis, 93-39. Widenfelt, a versatile whirlwind at point-getting, piled up 14 counters as he wrapped up the discus event, tied for first in the high jump and placed second in three other events.

Meyer cracked the meet record with a 9:18.8 two-mile run, the fastest time ever recorded on Oregon State's Bell Field.

At Pullman, Washington State collected 12 of 15 firsts to scuttle Oregon's Ducks, 86-45. It was the third straight Northern Division track win for the Palouse outfit.

Bill Link and Al Fisher of the Cougars set new meet records. Link's time of 1:54.1 for the 880 cracking the old standard of 1:54.8 set by Sharp of Oregon in 1935, and Fisher's two mile run time of 9:27.3, beating the 9:35 record he established himself last year.

Linfield Downs PU

Forest Grove (AP)—Linfield spotted Pacific three runs in the second inning then went on a four-run spurge in the fifth here Saturday to dump Pacific, 10-4, in a Northwest Conference baseball game.
