Capitol Shopping Center Buys Out Park for May 13

The Salem-Lowiston West-ern International league basoball game at Waters park May 13 is already a sellout. But you can still get tickets.

Merchants of the Capitol Shopping Center have bought out the ball park that night, and free tickets to the game will be given to fans at any store in the Capitol Shopping center. Tickets are already available at the stores, and they are free for the asking.

Some of the ticket stubs will prove lucky, as there are such prizes as an outboard motor and a complete picnic outfit, including a portable grill, to be given away along with a number of other prizes.

The Waters field premises will be decorated to resem-ble a world series game.

Two Records Fall in NW Bowling Meet at Tacoma

Tacoma (P) — Two records fell and new leaders were installed in six divisions as fir-ing continued Sunday in the ternational Bowling Congress.

John Bolger of Vancouver, Wash., set an all-time record in the commercial all-events competition, with 1,927, and teamed with Mike Moriarty, also of Vancouver, for an alltime commercial doubles mark of 1,293.

New leaders also took 38th annual Northwestern In-ternational Bowling Congress.

New leaders also took over in the open singles, open all-events, and open doubles and open five-man competition. Frisco Burnett, Tacoma, rolled 244-215-225-684 to replace Gill Dell, Seattle, as open singles leader.

Allen Dahl, Richmond, Calif., went into third place in that division with 658 but bowled 636 to take seventh in the singles, has 1,280. Both are expected to top Dahl after the team shoot Wednesday night.

The 1,260 rolled by Burnett-Johnson team in open doubles crowded Walter Larson and Fred Hughes, Portland, who had 1,236, out of first place and dropped Rudy, Sayler-Clyde Scott, Missoula, Mont., 1,229, from second to third.

Other week-end changes:

Bision and Son, Richmond

Bision and Son, Richmond, took the open five-man lead with 2,891; Dick Lynn and Gene Carnegey, Everett, Wash., fired 1,217, to take sec-NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION

Paul Lorra

Paul Loree of Bend, Ore., rolled 625 to take fifth place in commercial singles from Larry Eyman, Port Angeles, Wash., 621. And Canyon Bowl of Beaverton, Ore., grabbed second place in the booster division with 2,596. In the 20th annual Northwestern Women's Bowling as-sociation tournament, Betty Harry Mekus of Longview, Wash., had held the open all-events lead through the early weeks of the congress with 1,845. N

However, Burnett and Earl Johnson, also of Tacoma, went into the open doubles lead with a total of 1,260, Burnett tolling 616 and Johnson 644. As a result Burnett has 11,300 in the all-events, and Johnson, who to bowled 636 to take seventh in the singles, has 1,280. Both are expected to top Dahl after the team shoot Wednesday night.
