When a crew of British sailors aboard Her Majesty's Ship "Pinafore" find themselves surrounded by lovely ladies of royalty, only gaiety and romance could result.

Tuesday and Wednesday, May 5 and 6, at 8 p.m., the Salem High School choir will sakeume the guise of British tars and proper royal ladies to present Gilbert and Sullivan's satirical operetta, "H.M.S. Pinafore."

Wunder the direction of Howard F. Miller, and assisted by the Salem High orchestra, the choir members, in 19th century hoop skirts or sailors' garb, will offer the rollicking music and astirleal humor of Gilbert and Sullivan.

Playing the romantic leads will be Marca Lee Bryant as Josephine, the captain's daughter, and Roger Weaver as Ralph Rackstraw, a lowly sailor. The ship's captain, Roy Maltby, and Little Buttercup, Mauryne Nichols, comprise the more mature element of romance Sin Loranh Parter. Keizer — The Keizer Ladies first lord of the admiralty, will
