'Come and Get It' Says GI in Korea

Mt. Vernon, Ind. (AP)—Pfc. Laverne Kaffenberger mailed a South Korean 1,000-won note to Mt. Vernon officials who sent him a notice to pay a parking meter violation fine. If the money wasn't enough, he wrote, "you can send your representative to my current address in Korea. It is suggested he dress warmly and be prepared to dodge artillery shells."

B-36 Lands Safely on 3 Out of 6 Motors

Mobile, Ala. (AP)—A huge B-36 bomber glided through rain and a low ceiling to an emergency landing at Brookley Air Force Base with three of its six engines out of commission.

None of the crew of eight officers and 10 enlisted men was injured.
