"Say, Daddy, do you know what May the tenth is?"
"Why sure it's Sunday, all you have to do is look at the calendar to see that."
"But Daddy—it's also Mother's Day and I hope you haven't forgotten to tell your chef down at the hotel to fix up a special Mother's Day dinner for all the mothers in the vicinity of Salem."

—that's a pretty fancy word for me to use, daddy. I hope your chef fixes up a fancy dinner better than for anyone else in the world, because everyone wants to take their mother out for dinner so daddy you tell the chef to get on the ball and do a really nice job!"
Well folks I had not forgotten Mother's Day, but as a matter of fact I did not realize it was next Sunday, and for your information, Carolyn dear, we WILL have the best dinner in all the land for the mothers who dine at the Marion.
