READY FOR 13-HOUR BLOOD MARATHON

"Give me a donation, Spider." That's what Jim Dandy, right, is saying to Spider MacLean as the boys get set for a 13 hour marathon broadcast over KGAE for the Marion County Blood Bank. They hope to raise $550 in pledges and cash in order to keep the blood bank functioning in Marion County during the coming year.

KGAE to Put On All-Day Blood Bank Radio Show

Jim Dandy and Spider MacLean of KGAE will go on the air for 13 hours Saturday for the Marion County Blood Bank in an effort to raise $550 through pledges and donations.

The Red Cross fund campaign fell short and the board has announced that unless additional funds are forthcoming the Blood Bank will cease July 1. Five thousands five hundred dollars will be required to keep it alive.

The program on KGAE will be called, "The Big Show for Blood" and will be broadcast from downtown Salem on

Middle Grove

Middle Grove—Middle Grove 4-H club members brought home several blue ribbons the past week-end from the latest field trip.

Saturday, Dick Moorman, Cherryll Doty, Gary Doty, George Darland, Ronnie Moorman, Sam Myers, Carolyn Crum, Eddie Page, Ray Darland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doty, Mrs. Paul Bassett and a new member, Dick Kuykendall, were in Corvallis to attend the annual Ag week festivities at the college, as representatives of the Triple F 4-H Live Stock club.

Middle Grove had two judging teams. In the first were George Darland, Gary Doty and Dick Moorman and the second Ronnie Moorman, Sam Myers and Eddie Page.

Both teams received a second for swine judging a third for dairy and a second for all club judging.

Dick Moorman also received a third place award in individual judging for beef. Measles have been in epidemic form in Middle Grove the past week, with first graders at school having the most cases. There were 27 absent from the primary room the past week.

Members of Middle Grove extension unit who were interested in the rug making work shop have been meeting with Mrs. Harry Scharf this week for lessons.

Middle Grove Extension unit which was given a first place at the festival last week, and asked to put up the exhibit in a store window has placed the little models wearing the "Functional House Dresses" in the windows of Sears store on the Capitol street side.

School Plans Get Approval

The Salem school board has given its approval to plans prepared for James L. Payne, local architect, for construction of an addition to the Liberty school.

Bids will be opened May 26 and it is anticipated that the augmented building will be ready for use at the opening of the fall term.

The base bid calls for construction of four class rooms, which, when completed, will permit discontinuance of two rooms on the second floor of the present structure.

Alternates to set forth by the architect include: Use of steel beams instead of laminated wood beams; two additional classrooms and auxiliary facilities, and wood window sash, steel or aluminum.

Other improvements planned for Liberty include better exits from the gymnasium and pro-

Stayton Alumni Meets Saturday

Stayton — Alumni and committees of the Stayton high school Alumni Association are preparing for the 39th annual "Homecoming" Saturday, May 9.

It is expected that more than 300 alumni members and their spouses will attend. The full day's activity program will start at 10 a.m. with the traditional May Day program, climaxed with the crowning of Queen Sally I, and entertainment supplied by the students of the Stayton public schools.

In the afternoon will be the annual "tussle" in baseball between the Stayton high team and the "has-been," Alumni team.

In the evening at 6:30 p.m. a banquet will be served in the spacious high school auditorium, with William E. Ryan of the class of 1920 as toastmaster.

Following the banquet the alumni ball will feature the remainder of the evening at the Stayton grade school gymnasium.

Active committees working on the program include: banquet, Rose Bell, Linore Ingalls, Eunice Phillips; reception, Josephine Smith; dance, Gerald Marking, Max Stayton, Bob Hagen, Roland Darby; banquet decorations, Beulah Smith, Gertrude Pendton; dance decorations, Patricia Freres, Sharon Gehlen, Phyllis Goodman; invitations, Lois Blum, Esther Johnson; program, Ve Smith, Eugene Spaniol, Verla Frey; publicity, Ed J. Bell; properties, Delbert Chrisman, Claude Phillips, Robert Juel, Joe Peters; baseball, vision for the gym's use for night meetings without opening the balance of the school.

Construction will mean the cutting of seven trees.

Wm. Fair, Robert Lucas; election, Stanley Smith, Gary Ward and Don Pallet.
Present officers of the association are: President, Robert Freres; vice president, William Fair; secretary, Lois Blum; treasurer, Sharon Gehlen; historian, Eunice Phillips; directors, Calvin Hughes, Fred Davie, Walter Smith.
Again this year, they are publishing a directory wherein is listed the names and addresses of more than 1,000 present members of the alumni association.

The 1953 graduates of Stayton Union high, numbering 50, will be received into the association at the Banquet Saturday night.
Following the banquet, various rooms in the high school have been set aside for different classes of past years to congregate for a social hour.
