Elections Interest Campus Now

By BARBARA JACKSON
Capital Journal Correspondent

May week-end has come and gone, and conversations about parade, coronation, all-campus sing, etc., can be heard on the Willamette campus.

Members of the senior class will travel this week-end to the coast for their annual beach trip. Arranged by George Buland of Palo Alto, Calif., the seniors will be at the beach from Friday until Monday.

George Evans of Portland was elected president of Phi Delta Theta, Monday night, and Norm Dversdal, also of Portland, was elected president of Sigma Chi.

Student body elections will be held next week, beginning on Monday. Nominated for president have been Jim Hitchman of Balboa Island, Calif., and Ken Cooper of Seattle, Wash.

George Evans and Doug Graham of Portland, and Dale Ackerman of Camas, Wash., are running for first vice-president, and Bob Alfred of Portland and Gay Weeks of Salem are the candidates for second vice-president.

Dona Cheney of San Mateo, Calif., and Ellis Von Eschen of Salem are running for treasurer, and Carol Emerson of Corbett and Carolyn Crane of Portland have been nominated for student body secretary.

A recital will be presented by Miss Ethel Lou Stanek, cellist, and Mrs. Catherine Schnelber, pianist, Monday at 8:15 p.m. as a part of the Music school's faculty series. Townspeople are invited to attend.

AROTC cadets flew to Sacramento today as a part of the Air Force program to acquaint them with the operation of air bases and supply depots. They will return to Salem again tomorrow evening.

Lausanne hall was the scene of a noon luncheon meeting today to open the Willamette university million dollar challenge fund. Dr. G. Herbert Smith presided at the meeting and guest speaker was Truman Collins, co-chairman of the national program. Charles E. McCulloch, president of the board of trustees and Robert Notson, chairman of the Portland campaign, also spoke. President Smith disclosed that 30 per cent of the million dollar goal is expected to be raised in Salem.

Continuing in Willamette's art gallery and music annex building until Monday at 9

45 Received Into Sodality Ceremony

Mt. Angel — Forty-five young men and ladies were received into the Blessed Virgin sodality, following the 8 o'clock a.m. mass in St. Mary's church Sunday morning. The Rev. Clement Frank, OSB, sodality moderator, officiated at the services, which was attended by all members of the sodality.

Following the church services, members were honored at an annual Communion breakfast in the dining room of St. Mary's school. Guest speaker was J. T.
