Silverton

Silverton — Mrs. Andrew Moore, who fell at her home and broke her left wrist several days ago, is improving normally at her home. Mrs. J. P. A. Hansen, 87 years of age, emergency surgical patient at the local hospital, is reported to be making a speedy recovery being able to walk about her room.

Mrs. Carl Benson, surgery patient at Silverton hospital for several days, will be able to return to her home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. William Shufford and daughter, Billie, from Detroit Dam, paid a surprise visit to the home of the Suel Shepherd's coming to assist the farming in moving to their South Water st. residence from East Hill, where they plan to live, temporarily, to be nearer the location on Silver Creek of their new home being completed. Mrs. Shufford and Mrs. Shepherd are sisters.

Miss Goldie Stump and Jim Mang of Portland were week end house guests at the Silverton home of the parents of Miss Stump, Mr. and Mrs. John De-mas.

Mothers Star At Woodburn

Woodburn—More than 100 mothers attended "Mother's Day," at Woodburn high school Wednesday afternoon, sponsored by the student council of the high school. This was the first event of its kind at the school and was much enjoyed.

Met by members of the student council the mothers signed the guest book and each was presented with an American Beauty rosebud. The program opened with music by the high school band, directed by Donald Jessop, and greetings to the mothers was by Bob Withers, student body president; Mrs. N. F. Tyler gave a response.

A style show was put on by the home economics girls, interspersed with musical numbers. The first number of the style show was "Off to School," followed by music by the Chorallers, directed by Harriet Nizic. "Ready for Play" included modeling of play clothes followed by a reading by Bette Norton. "My Favorite Date" modeled date dresses and "Church on Sunday" modeled suits appropriate for church. A vocal solo by Ronald English was followed by a pantomime, "A Day at Coney Island," by Shirley Anderson and "My First Prom," modeled formal. Shirley Anderson acted as commentator. The program closed with music by the high school chorus, directed by Miss Nizic.

Tea for the mothers and their sons and daughters was served by the FHA girls at small tables decorated with spring flowers. Presiding at the urn was Mrs. O. L. Withers and serving punch was Mrs. Frank P. Doerfler.

Committees in charge included Mary Yuraneck, chairman, Karen Magnuson, Sheila Fitch, Royal Hastie, Bob Winters; invitation, Martha Austin, chairman, Marjorie Chitwood; reception, Marjorie Chitwood, chairman, Martha Austin, Jane McGrath, Shirley Anderson, Phyllis Roberts; programs, Dollie Cummings, chairman, Paul Edwards, Mildred Parton; refreshments, Mrs. Al Ringo, adviser.

New Telephones for Lebanon District

Lebanon—Completion of a new line will this week give 19 suburban and rural homes south of Lebanon telephone service. The Linn County Telephone company is now doing the necessary house wiring with call service to go into effect this week-end.

A liberal rural line extension policy being followed by the company will soon bring service to many more farm and suburban customers in Lebanon, Sweet Home and Brownsville exchange areas.

Under the plan 1,000 feet of pole line, or 2,649 of circuit on existing pole lines along public roads can be constructed for each customer without customer contribution other than the usual installation charge.

Unionvale

Unionvale—Members of the Unionvale Home Demonstration unit attending the Yamhill County Spring Festival at McMinnville Tuesday were: Mrs. Susie Douglas, Mrs. Jamie Ediger, Mrs. Adolph Hrabka, Mrs. Louis Magee, Mrs. Clark Noble, Mrs. Claude Pilcher, Mrs. Fred C. Stackroff, Mrs. Carrie Kidd, Mrs. Jacob Tompkins, Mrs. Cecil Will, Mrs. Steven Nevil, Mrs. Fred Withee.

Calla Lilies and Cecil Brunner roses are blooming at the Mrs. Clarence L. Fowler farm in the Unionvale district.

DeMolay Elects S. Van Arsdale

Woodburn—Sam Van Arsdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van Arsdale of Woodburn, a senior at Woodburn high school, was elected master counselor of Woodburn chapter of DeMolay at the regular meeting Wednesday night at the Masonic Temple.

Willard Thompson was elected senior counselor and Bob Withers, junior counselor. Appointive officers will be announced later. Open installation of the new officers will be Friday night, May 22, with Philip LaBarr, retiring master counselor, as the installing officer.

There was a large attendance of Masons at the meeting and the initiatory degree was conferred upon Duane Baird and Robert Dixon. At the next regular meeting, May 20, the DeMolay degree will be conferred.

Preceding the meeting a family pot-luck dinner was served by the Mother's Circle at 6:30 o'clock. A short program was held at the table, with Master Counselor Philip LaBarr, presiding. Lester E. Keller, DeMolay Dad, was presented with a lighted birthday cake as a surprise in honor of his birthday anniversary, and he also gave a talk. Willard Thompson gave a comic skit.

INDICTED

Aurora

Aurora — Those who journeyed to Brownsville recently to attend the Institute for Vacation Church School were: Miss Orietta Kraus, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hampel, Mrs. Ralph Bair, Mrs. Herbert Jolin, Mrs. Harriet Ehlen, Mrs. Erma Leek and Mrs. Hartwell White.

In Aurora, vacation church school will be held the first two weeks in June in the Presbyterian church. The school will run from 9 to 11:30 each morning and there will be classes for all boys and girls from nursery age (3) up through kindergarten, primary, junior and intermediate. This year, the brand new Westminster vacation church school materials will be used, and there will be many other new features.

The monthly meeting of the Aurora Women's association of the Presbyterian church on May 29, will be in the form of a missionary offering tea, with the Rev. L. C. Leikauf of Christ Lutheran church as the speaker.

Devotions will be led by Mrs. John Kraus from the study book on Colossians. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lorin Giesy, Mrs. Robert Colvin and Mrs. Vernon Eilers.

The Women's association has purchased new dishes—service for 100—for the church kitchen.

On behalf of the church, the women's association also has given $40 to help send Scouts Robert Will and Wendel McLin to the National Boy Scout Jamboree to be held in July near Santa Ana, Calif.

Blind Students Entertain Club

Dallas — The Oregon State School for the Blind presented the program for Women's club at their regular May 5 meeting. Lorraine Taylor, Salem, and Betty Jo Gillstrap, Winchester, entertained with a variety of numbers on their guitars. They sang several numbers, as well as accompanying themselves.

Another student, Harold Hargrave, Salem, discussed the curriculum of the school as well as its history. He demonstrated the use of various Braille machines, and demonstrated reading.

The children were accompanied by one of their instructors, Frank Sanders, who was also sightless. He discussed goals of the school as well as progress that he has made in Oregon in recent years at early detection and aid given for blind children.

The organization heard committee reports and made plans for the final meeting of the year in June.

Hostesses for the afternoon were: Mrs. V. O. Williams, Mrs. George Woods, Mrs. J. C. Tracy, Mrs. John B. Eakin, Mrs. Eugene Hayter, Mrs. R. G. McFarland.

The tea table was tastefully arranged with pink dog wood and ice cream May baskets. Pouring were Mrs. Paul Morgan, retiring president and Mrs. Morris Slack, president elect.

va McKinney, Miss Patty Dickman, Miss Nellie Harrington and Bobby Vetter.

Rev. Bates and Mrs. Bates were official chaperones for the four delegates attending from Silverton.

Detroit-Idanha High Exercises

Detroit—Four senior students will share the graduation spotlight at Detroit-Idanha high school exercises in the gymnasium June 2.

The small class includes two students who have attended high school here for four years, Alice Fryer who completes her twelfth year at the Detroit-Idanha school, and Raymond Wallace who has attended for five years.

Other graduating seniors are Jules Hill who came to Detroit as a sophomore and Jeannette Knodel who has attended one year.

This school averages 35 students and has recorded several years with no graduating students and others with from one to seven.

Guest speaker for the commencement program will be Dr. Roy C. McCall, head of the University of Oregon speech department. Student speakers will be Jeannette Knodel and Alice Fryer.

Baccalaureate services will be held at the Detroit church on May 31 at 11 a.m.
