Plays Here Sunday—Valerian Fox, above, Portland organist, is to play here Sunday evening in a concert at the Roberts studio at 7:30 o'clock.

Program Listed For Fox Concert

For his program Sunday evening, May 10, at 7:30 o'clock at Roberts Studio, Valerian Fox, Portland organist, has selected as his major works the G minor Fantasia et Fuga (The "Great") of J. S. Bach, one of the greater 18 Leipzig chorales of Bach, O Lamm Gottes, unsculdig, and the Introduction and Passacaglia from the Sonata No. 8 in E minor, Op. 152, of Rheinberger.

Purcell's Suite V, the Variations on a theme of Clement Jannequin, one of the popular Widor works, the Scherzo from the Second Symphony, Op. 13 No. 2, and H. Dallier's Stella Matutina are also included. Added to these will be chorale prelude on the Gregorian hymn, "Adoro Te Devote" by the organist's father, Norbert E. Fox, and the delightful Spanish rhythms and modern idiom of E. Torres' Cantos Intimos III.

Mr. Fox is appearing here as the guest of Prof. T. S. Roberts, well-known Salem organist. This is one of several spring concerts in conjunction with a tour this month that will take Mr. Fox as far south as Stanford university.

Persons desiring to hear him while in Salem may make arrangements to attend the recital Sunday by calling T. S. Roberts (3-7111). The organ program will be followed by an informal reception.

Another little reminder about the Jean and Cotton dance on May 23. We don't want you to forget because it will be the last dance of the year.

Last Friday night fun night was a no-host one. Many members turned out though and had a lot of fun playing different games. Afterwards, cake was served.

Floyd Seamster called the drill Monday night and then Mrs. George Stender served coffee in the club room.

The drill team had their regular practice Wednesday night and Mrs. Harry Carson served coffee afterwards.

The drill team got their new red shirts, white hats and white ties Wednesday night and are very proud of them. Their first showing this year will be at Scio on May 23. This will be the third straight year they have attended the lamb show and have drilled at Scio.

Thirteen drill members went to Jefferson last Friday to take part in the annual

Mrs. Hall New Club President

Liberty — Mrs. Clarence Griffith was hostess to the Liberty Woman's club on Wednesday at a desert at her home on Pembroke avenue. Mrs. S. B. Davidson reported on the Girl Scout activities, and announced the Girl Scout picnic is scheduled for May 23, with the place yet to be decided. Transportation is needed and anyone with a car available is asked to contact Mrs. Davidson. The group decided to hold the club picnic at the William Lustoff home on May 22, at 12 p.m. with a no-host dinner. Mrs. William Lustoff, chairman of the club's booth at the Joryville Park carnival, reported on the progress, and it was announced that the dates of the carnival had been changed to May 29, 30, and 31.

There was an election of officers. Mrs. William Hall was elected president, Mrs. Louis Kurth, vice-president, and Mrs. Letitia Clark, secretary-treasurer. The officers will be installed at the picnic with Mrs. S. B. Davidson as the installing officer.

Mrs. John Douglas was the guest speaker and she spoke on geraniums, their history, care and various varieties; also on wild irises. Guests present were Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Ralph Toler, Mrs. Ray Riffe, and Mrs. Sarah Baker.

It was announced that the cake sale netted $31.14, with the proceeds to be used for Joryville park.
