Plan Centennial At Providence

Scio—The Centennial of the Providence rural church southeast of Scio will be held June 21.

The committee for planning the program for that day met at the home of two of the committee members, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Arnold, Monday evening, May 4, with Mr. Benton Arnold as chairman. Other members present were Rudy Friberg, pastor of the Providence church, who has been appointed to take the place of Reverend Elvin East on the committee; Mrs. Iva Abbott, a granddaughter of Joab Powell who organized the church 100 years ago, and a long-time member of the planning committee, and Mrs. Lettie Crane, secretary-treasurer of the organization.

Rudy Friberg was selected moderator for Providence Day and will arrange the devotional part of the program.

Churches in the nearby towns will be asked to contribute musical numbers.

If possible there will be "Reminiscences of Providence" by Mrs. Abbott and a short history of 100 years by someone connected with the church for many years.

Cyrus Peery, whose father organized the Providence Memorial association, is being asked to give a short review of the organization and its work up to the present.

One of the features is to be a display of pictures furnished by anyone who has pictures of the church or any of the members or scenes of bygone days. Pictures must have ownership plainly marked on the backs. Pictures should be addressed to Mrs. Lettie Crane, Rt. 3, Scio, Oregon.

The Providence Sunday School will decorate the church and furnish free coffee.

Sunday school will be held at 10 that morning with church services following at 11. If possible there will be special numbers for the service.

The usual picnic dinner will be held at noon and the afternoon services will open with congregational singing at 2 P. M.

Plans for putting in new concrete steps at both the front and back entrances were started with the hope that the work will be completed before Providence Day. When plans are completed help by any interested persons in doing the work will be appreciated.

The meeting was adjourned until the evening of June 1 at the same time and place to complete arrangements for the program.
